Safe Ready for Blowing When Officer Appears

Bold Attempt to Rob Maynard's Auction Rooms; Two Arrested

Long Chase in Town

William Robert Clarke, 30, and James B. Dyer, 31, both of Vancouver, were charged in the City Police Court today with breaking and entering, following an attempted safe-blowing at Maynard's Auction Rooms, 733 Johnson Street, at 4.15 this morning.

Special Constable Leslie Douglas, a policeman for only four months, chased the men through city streets and arrested them in an alleyway off Cormorant Street.

Both men pleaded not guilty in court and were remanded until tomorrow.

The single-handed arrest of the two men by Constable Douglas brought warm praise this morning from Police Chief J. A. McLellan and Inspector J. H. Rogers of the plain clothes department.

According to Constable Douglas' report, he was on patrol duty on Johnson Street when he looked into Maynard's and saw a flashlight being used in front of the office safe.

He ran to the rear of the building to see where entrance had been made and as he reached a roof two stories high he heard a crash of glass in front of the building.

DROPS TO GROUND

He ran to the edge of the roof and dropped about 25 feet to the ground. As he reached the front he saw two figures fleeing across a vacant lot opposite the auction room, towards Pandora Avenue.

Commandeering a Quarter Cab taxi which was being driven east on Johnson Street by Ronald Kitchener, the officer instructed him to drive around the block on to Pandora Avenue.

"When we got on to Pandora Avenue I saw two men running west, then turn north on Douglas Street in front of the City Hall," Constable Douglas told the Times police reporter this morning.

"We gave chase, and as they turned down Cormorant Street I saw one slip into the alleyway. I jumped out of the taxi and ran into the doorway, where I found one man crouching behind a pillar. Believing the other man had escaped I took the man I had in custody to police headquarters in the taxi.

MAKES SECOND ARREST

"After booking him at headquarters, I returned to the alleyway with a suspicion that the other man might be loitering around. At the head of the stairway I found a man, who had a cut on his leg, which was bleeding."

Inspector Rogers and Detective P. W. Richards were called and took part in the investigation at Maynard's, where it was found the double-doored safe had been lined with soap, the usual preparation before a safe is blown with nitro-glycerine.

A three-ounce bottle containing a liquid not unlike nitro-glycerine was found in the office and police today ordered its analysis.

The investigation also disclosed a large pane of glass in the doorway of the auction rooms had been shattered, apparently to permit exit.

THE WEATHER

VICTORIA, B. C., today.—The disturbance centered off Vancouver Island is causing rain on the coast and pressure is relatively low in the British Columbia interior, where the weather has been mostly fair and moderately warm. Light showers have been reported in southern districts of the prairie provinces.

Chamberlain Warns Japan

If Invaders Force Tientsin Blockade Issue Britain Will Ask Other Great Powers to Act

By J. F. SANDERSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON — Prime Minister Chamberlain warned in the House of Commons today that if Japan is blockading the British concession at Tientsin to force Great Britain to co-operate with the Japanese in China, the government might seek co-operation of other nations in restricting that aim.

He described as "grave" the situation created by the Japanese blockade of the British and French settlements in the North China port.

He told the Commons a Japanese spokesman at Tientsin had indicated the object of Japan's blockade was to "obtain a much wider form of co-operation from British authorities in China."

"Such demand would raise important questions of policy in which other great powers are concerned no less than this country and closest touch is being maintained with the French and United States governments," he said.

The Prime Minister said Sir Robert Craigie, British ambassador at Tokyo, had made representations to the Japanese government about the blockade.

TRADE MEASURES

"The government has under consideration" what steps should be taken to protect British trade in North China, he declared, while reports persisted outside Parliament that economic retaliation would be started by Great Britain.

Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian High Commissioner in London, and other Dominion representatives were given full information on the Tientsin incident at a long conference with Sir Thomas Inskip, the Dominions secretary, earlier today.

Mr. Chamberlain told the House that if the statement attributed to the Japanese spokesman in Tientsin represented the views of authorities in Tokyo, "the Japanese are using the incident to make demands wider and more far-reaching than the handing over of the four men."

He referred to Japan's earlier demand for delivery to Japanese authorities of four Chinese accused of killing a Tientsin official and now detained in the British concession there. Great Britain's rejection of this demand led to imposition of the blockade Wednesday morning.

He said that while the situation was "obviously a grave one," he was not prepared to say at the moment what action the government might decide to take.

What type of economic measures Britain will adopt to counter Japanese pressure in the China concessions was not known, but weapons at her disposal include discriminatory tariffs, exclusion of Japanese ships from British-controlled ports in the Far East such as Singapore and Hongkong, and embargoes against raw materials shipped to Japan.

Britain also could make things difficult for Japan by increasing financial assistance to General Chiang Kai-shek in his efforts to resist Japanese establishment of a "new order" in China.

NO SPEEDY AGREEMENT

A government spokesman said Japan had rejected Britain's suggestion for an impartial inquiry into the evidence against the four alleged Chinese terrorists.

Hope for speedy settlement of the dispute faded when Japanese authorities at Tientsin rejected the proposal for a three-man tribunal.

The government believes the chance for amicable settlement depends on Tokyo, one reliable informant said, despite the action of "army politicians" in Tientsin.

(The British Government announced March 8 the creation of a Chinese-British stabilization fund of £10,000,000 (about $46,800,000) to protect China's currency. Half of the fund was contributed by two British institutions, the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank and the chartered bank, which the government announced it would guarantee against loss.)

Wright Loses Fight for Life

Commutation Refused. Victoria Negro Sentenced To Be Hanged Tomorrow

"The law will take its course in the case of R. A. Wright, sentenced by Hon. Justice Robertson to be executed on June 16," Sheriff W. H. Goggin was informed today in a telegram from W. P. J. O'Meara, acting Under-Secretary of State, Ottawa.

The 68-year-old prisoner will be hanged tomorrow at Okalla Prison, it was stated.

Imposition of the death penalty on a prisoner convicted of murder in the Victoria district tomorrow will be the first since Sowash and Baker, highjackers, were hanged on January 4, 1926, for the murder of Captain Gillis and his son in the Gulf of Georgia.

The decision not to interfere with sentence marked the end of the fight conducted by Stuart Henderson, to save Wright from the gallows. P. J. Sinnott conducted the defence at the Assize Court trial.

"His Excellency the Governor-General-in-Council is unable to order interference with the sentence of the court in the case of R. A. Wright now under sentence of death," a telegram advised Mr. Henderson today.

An application for commutation had been made by Mr. Henderson following his unsuccessful appeal before the Court of Appeal at its last sitting here and following the court's refusal to reopen the case in Vancouver.

Wright was found guilty by a jury on March 22 of murdering Mrs. Dulcie Hanham at Esquimalt on January 28. The body of the woman, the head battered in by a hammer and the throat cut, was found on Colville Road Extension.

No Second Royal Tour

CANBERRA (CP-Reuters) — Prime Minister R. G. Menzies today said he knew nothing about any projected visit of the King and Queen to Australia.

TENSION GROWS AT TIENTSIN

Some Relief When British and Japanese Troops March Apart

TIENTSIN (AP)—A tense episode in Japan's blockade of Tientsin foreign areas in which British troops with machine guns and Japanese troops with tanks faced each other across barricades for several hours was ended Thursday night when both forces marched away.

A strong British note to Japanese authorities insisted on "immediate steps" to end the stopping and searching of British subjects by Japanese soldiers blockading the British and French concessions.

The opposing troops, patrolling opposite sides of the barricaded concession boundary, were separated by only a few feet until the British suddenly withdrew and the Japanese then quickly removed their force.

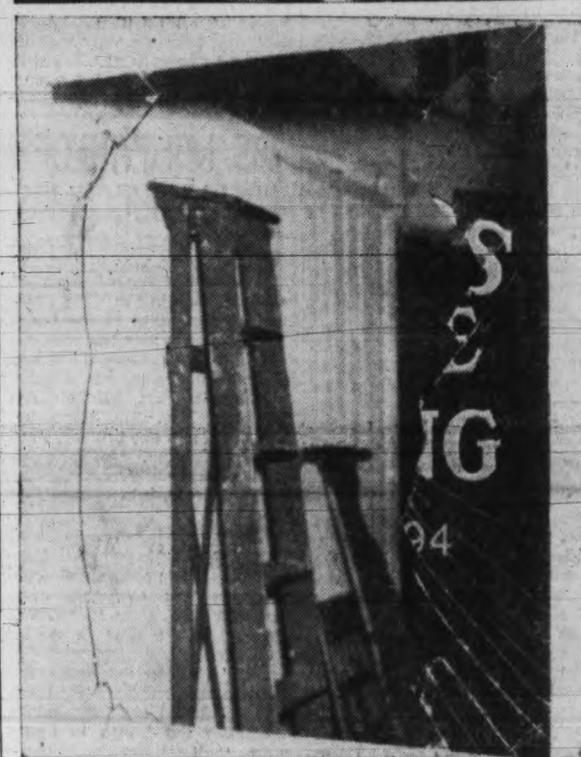

Edgar G. Jamieson, British consul-general, vigorously protesting to Japanese diplomatic authorities, also charged British shipping on the Hai River, Tientsin's outlet to the sea, was being stopped and searched by the Japanese and demanded that this cease.

DISCRIMINATION

Jamieson declared the Japanese manning the barricades at the concessions' exit were discriminating against British from among the foreign community of Tientsin. Britons have declared Japanese guards compelled them to strip to the waist and submit to search when crossing concession boundaries. In many cases even shoes and socks were removed.

Jamieson's note listed numerous incidents connected with Japanese searches of British subjects, including the case of two British soldiers in uniform which he said was particularly serious.

Jamieson requested "an immediate reply" to his note "for the information of my government, to whom these facts already have been transmitted."

SAFE READY FOR BLOWING—Preliminary preparations made for blowing the safe at Maynard's Auction Rooms, 733 Johnson Street, are shown in the top picture. Down the crack between the double doors of the safe soap was pressed and also along the crack at the top. About the centre, at the top soap was formed into a cup and into it would have been poured nitro-glycerine. A detonating cap with fuse is usually attached to the safe and the safe covered with blankets or other suitable material to muffle the blast. The hand of Detective Dave Donaldson, fingerprint expert, indicates the soap in the crack between the doors. The lower picture shows the shattered window in the front door of the auction room.

A Farewell To Their Majesties

From coast to coast your people with elation
Have given you gladly all their loyal praise;
At last fades out the welcome of a Nation,
And into story pass these noble days.

Take from our hearts these faithful words in parting,
When from our shore the lordly ship goes free,
While the last, swift Canadian gulls are darting,
And the long harbor opens to the sea.

May many a lovely memory never perish,
Scenes of our glorious country, far above
All the land's peerless beauty may you cherish
The crowning glory of a people's love.

While the King reigns from ocean to ocean,
Under the wide, serene Canadian sky,
We whom you leave in ageless, deep devotion,
Can never to our Sovereign say good-bye.

Master of Life whose power is never sleeping,
In the dark void or in the hearts of men,
Hold them, our King and Queen, safe in Thy keeping
And bring them to their western realm again.

And for their Canada be watchful ever,
Grant us this boon if there be one alone,
To do our part in high and pure endeavor
To build a peaceful Empire 'round the Throne.

—DUNCAN CAMPBELL SCOTT.

This poem was especially written for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation by Duncan Campbell Scott, nationally-known Canadian author and poet, and read over the network this afternoon as the King and Queen sailed out of the harbor at Halifax, concluding their North American visit.

King and Queen Voyage Home

Throng at Halifax Gives Thunderous Farewell at End of Canadian Tour

HALIFAX (CP) — The liner Empress of Britain, bearing King George and Queen Elizabeth from Canada to Newfoundland and on their way to England, pulled away from the Halifax waterfront at 6.32 this evening (2.32 p.m., P.S.T.).

Just before the ship left the wharf their Majesties appeared on the bridge and were greeted by a thunderous roar from the crowd which had waited in gay mood for the Empress to sail.

When the lines were cast off and the great white ship started to move the cheers swelled to a crescendo and were joined by the roaring of whistles from all the shipping in Halifax harbor.

Three Royal Canadian Air Force planes circled overhead as tugs manoeuvred the liner out into the fairway.

The British cruisers Glasgow and Southampton preceded the Royal ship out of the harbor. She was followed by the Canadian destroyers Skeena and Saguenay. Hundreds of pleasure craft and fishing vessels formed an unofficial escort.

Lord Tweedsmuir, the Governor-General, was among the last to come ashore before the gangplank was raised.

LAST DRIVE OF TOUR

King George and Queen Elizabeth had left Government House for the Empress of Britain at 5.12 p.m., eight minutes ahead of the scheduled time for their departure.

From the old grey stone mansion to the pier 20 and beyond to the wooded dunes of Point Pleasant Park, point of the peninsula on which Halifax stands, 150,000 persons were jammed for a last glimpse and farewell.

Earlier Their Majesties had completed a 10-mile drive through the city to Government House several minutes ahead of schedule.

ARRIVAL IN HALIFAX

King George and Queen Elizabeth earlier in the day had stepped down for the last time from the blue and silver train that had carried them more than 8,000 miles across Canada and into the United States—the official residence for most of the first trip ever made by a reigning British Sovereign to America.

Their Majesties, able to hear the roar of acclaim from the crowds still hidden from view by the station walls, were smiling as they alighted at 11.05 a.m., A.S.T. (7.05 a.m., P.S.T.) to be welcomed officially by Premier Angus Macdonald and Lord Tweedsmuir, who had joined the Royal train at Truro, 60 miles east of the city. The Governor-General had motored to Truro from Halifax, where he arrived two days ago aboard the Empress of Britain.

Thunderous cheering broke out immediately the guns began booming the Royal salute to signal the party's arrival. The King wore the uniform of an admiral of the fleet and the Queen a blue ensemble, its V-neck trimmed with Irish lace.

Before leaving the station Their Majesties shook hands with virtually every member of the crew of the Royal train. The Queen stopped to talk briefly with a porter.

Then the King and Queen stepped into the Royal car and drove slowly along crowded avenues to Province House, smiling and waving to the people who jammed the sidewalks of the sunlit streets. The weather was perfect.

Bursts of cheering arose repeatedly as the Royal Party arrived at the legislative buildings and Their Majesties entered to receive the address of welcome signed by Lieutenant-Governor R. Irwin and the premier.

Inside the building the King unveiled a portrait of his late father, King George V, by Sir Wyly Grier.

Then, after receiving local dignitaries, Their Majesties left Province House and drove to the city hall, where Mayor Walter Mitchell presented a civic address of welcome on a platform outside the building while thousands of persons shouted and cheered from their standing-room on the square.

Then the Royal parade continued through crowds so enthusiastic they broke through police lines and temporarily cut off the procession, jamming in front of the line of cars following behind those of the King and Queen and the Governor-General.

After a government luncheon at the Nova Scotian Hotel, Their Majesties were invited to Citadel Hill, where they watched a pageant depicting the early days of Nova Scotia, the last big public event before their departure.

TERMS REDUCED FOR 260 PRISONERS

Attorney-General Gordon Wismer announced today the one month's reduction in sentence for prisoners announced by Ottawa will be extended to apply to those sentenced for provincial offences.

The Royal mercy arranged at Ottawa applied only to those imprisoned for federal offences, but now will cover everyone in B.C. jails serving more than three months. Their terms will be reduced at least one month and in long-term cases by more.

The reduction will apply to 260 inmates of the provincial government's Okalla prison farm. Of these 216 were sentenced for criminal code offences, 39 under other Dominion statutes and five under the B.C. Liquor Act.

REICH BLAMED FOR BLACK TOM BLASTS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States Mixed Claims Commission today held Germany responsible for the Black Tom and Kingsland, N.J., munitions disasters prior to the entry of the United States into the Great War.

The international tribunal, of which Supreme Court Justice Owen J. Roberts is umpire, reversed its Hamburg decision of 1930 which accepted the "industrial accident" theory of the fires and explosions which rocked the New York metropolitan area in 1916 and 1917.

American claimants who sought damages of $50,000,000 from the Reich have contented throughout 12 years of litigation that the destruction of the Lehigh Valley Railroad terminal at Black Tom in 1916 and the Kingsland assembly plant early in 1917 was the work of saboteurs in the pay of the imperial German government.

Royal Couple Say Farewell To Canadians

Good-bye Messages Broadcast to All By King and Queen

Inspiring Weeks

HALIFAX (CP)—Saying farewell to Canada with "memories that will never dim" and with "minds and hearts full," the King and Queen today spoke to the millions of people who greeted them on their tour of the Dominion.

Over a national network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and Empire hookup Their Majesties each sent a brief message of thanks—a "bread and butter" letter—to everyone in the Dominion.

The King said: "The time has come for the Queen and myself to say goodbye to the people of Canada."

"You have given us a welcome of which the memory will always be dear to us. In our travels across your great country, we have seen not a little of its infinite variety of natural wealth and natural beauty."

"We have had the privilege of meeting Canadians, old and young, of many proud racial origins and in all walks of life. We hope we have made many friends among you."

"We have had the opportunity, also, of crossing your border and paying an all too brief visit to Canada's great and friendly neighbor to the south. Our minds and hearts are full. We leave your shores after some of the most inspiring and illuminating weeks in our lives."

Then His Majesty spoke one paragraph in French:

"My first duty is to thank you all from the bottom of my heart. In a very short time you have enabled us to see many things. We have to thank you not only for your personal kindness, but for the perfection of your arrangements. I must say I think we have almost performed a miracle in surmounting so many difficulties presented by covering so vast a space in so limited a time."

FUTURE OF CANADA

Then in English again: "I return to England with a new sense of the resources and of the responsibilities of our British Empire. I am confident that Canada has before her a development far beyond the most optimistic dream of her pioneers. Her growth in material wealth is fully assured. For her sons and daughters I wish her an even greater growth in the stature of mind and spirit."

"I go home with another thought, which is a comfort and an inspiration. From the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the tropics to the Arctic, lies a large part of the earth where there is no possibility of war between neighbors, whose people are wholly dedicated to the pursuits of peace, a pattern to all men of how civilized nations should live together. It is good to know that such a region exists, for what man can do once he can do again. By God's grace yours may yet be the example which all the world will follow."

QUEEN'S FAREWELL

The Queen said: "I cannot leave Canada without saying a word of farewell to you all, and thanking you for the wealth of affection that you have offered us through these unforgettable weeks."

"Seeing this country, with all its varied beauty and interest, has been a real delight to me; but what has warmed my heart in a way I cannot express in words is the proof you have given us everywhere that you were glad to see us. And in return I want particularly to tell the women and children of Canada how glad I am to have seen so many of them. Some, I know, came scores of miles to meet us, and that has touched me deeply. There were many others, I fear, whom distance, or illness, prevented from coming; to these I should like to send a special word of greeting—they have been always in my thoughts."

"This wonderful tour of ours has given me memories that the passage of time will never dim. To the people of Canada and to all the kind people in the United States who welcomed us so warmly last week—to one and all on this friendly continent, I say thank you. God be with you and God bless you. Au revoir et dieu vous benisse."

Britain Enters Propaganda Field

Chamberlain Says Earl of Perth Will Head Department

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain announced today the government would establish a foreign publicity department to co-ordinate the various agencies dealing with distribution of British views abroad.

He said the Earl of Perth, former ambassador to Italy, would head the new department, which would operate as a part of the Foreign Office.

The major purpose of the department, Mr. Chamberlain said, would be to disseminate "accurate information and counteract foreign misrepresentations of British policy."

He said that in event of war the government immediately would set up a ministry of information with a cabinet minister as its head, but that such a ministry was not needed now.

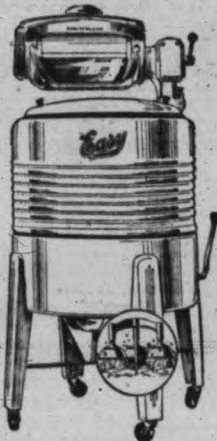

The new department will include the regular news section of the Foreign Office, which will be enlarged. Lord Perth Mr. Chamberlain said, would become director-general if the department were changed into a full ministry.

Italy Calls Up More Reservists

TURIN — The Italian newspaper Stampa reported today that the cabinet had decided on partial mobilization of reservists from the class of February, 1939. The move "must be considered as caused by extraordinary circumstances," the paper said, and advocated a special indemnity for all participating.

Painful Piles

Can Be Quickly Relieved

If you think there is no way to relieve the misery of piles, it's because you don't know of HEM-ROID, an internal medicine, from a prescription written by Dr. Leonhardt, a western physician.

The real cause of piles is on the inside—bad circulation of blood in the lower bowel, with the tiny rectal veins full of stagnant, impure blood.

Dr. Leonhardt decided the way to relieve piles was internally, with a medicine which would ease the congestion of blood in the veins of the lower bowel and help to heal and restore the sore, tender spots. After many tests he wrote the prescription which has been so successful in giving quick relief from pile misery. It is now offered to you with the promise that you may have your money back if you are not completely satisfied after using one bottle.

No matter what kind of piles you have or how long you have had them, HEM-ROID must show you the quick, clean way to get rid of your pile misery or your money will be given back to you. MacFarlane and Vancouver Drug Stores or any other druggist can supply you with HEM-ROID and will back up this promise.

Appeal Court Gives
Reasons for Upholding
Gas Price Control

VANCOUVER (CP)—In reasons handed down today explaining the British Columbia Court of Appeal's unanimous judgment upholding the power of the provincial Legislature to fix basic prices for gasoline, Mr. Justice Gordon Sloan expressed the opinion that "the legislation in question is the exercise of the power to regulate for legitimate provincial purposes a particular trade which is confined to the province."

The Appeal Court's judgment was handed down June 9, allowing an appeal of Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer from a judgment by Mr. Justice A. M. Manson, who found the price-fixing power of the Coal and Petroleum Products Control Board Act ultra vires.

Seven oil companies and two gasoline dealers who instituted legal action when cuts in the retail price of gasoline were ordered last October and later unsuccessfully opposed the Attorney-General's appeal, have announced through their counsel a further appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada or the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in London.

In discussing the arguments of Senator J. W. deB. Farris, counsel for the petroleum companies, Mr. Justice Sloan, who heard the appeal with Chief Justice Archer Martin and Mr. Justice W. G. McQuarrie, rejects the submission that "the impugned legislation is not the regulation of a trade in its purely local aspect but the regulation of trade as trade in its external aspect."

"Gasoline is a product which, through a highly-technical process of refining the imported crude oil, first comes into existence in this province," his statement continues. "It is sold here and consumed here. It therefore has its beginning and end within the province. The legislation in question, in my opinion, is the exercise of the power to regulate for legitimate provincial purposes a particular trade which is confined to the province."

MEET PROVINCES' NEEDS
Mr. Justice Sloan observed that the courts have "carved out" of the power given to Parliament to regulate trade and commerce that power which it is essential the provinces should possess to regulate trade and commerce in its local aspect.

He said "It is settled that legislation dealing with the contracts of a particular provincial trade or business, or regulating trade in particular commodities or classes of commodities in so far as it is local in the provincial sense, is within the exclusive powers assigned to the provinces over property and civil rights relating to the regulation of trade and commerce."

His Lordship said that a judgment which he considered decisive of the appeal was that of the Privy Council in 1938 which upheld that the province had the power to fix the prices of natural products. From this it followed, he said, that the province had power to fix prices of products imported from a foreign jurisdiction.

Dealing with Senator Farris's submission that the act was ultra vires because its object was to protect the British Columbia coal industry from competition with imported crude oil, Mr. Justice Sloan asserted "I can see nothing illegitimate in that object."

Furthermore, if Senator Farris's submission was correct and the purpose of the act was to protect coal by forcing an increase in fuel oil prices to offset the reduction in gasoline prices, he could not see "why an act of that character is not within provincial competence."

"Both industries are within the territorial jurisdiction of the province and if the Legislature considers it in the public welfare and for the common good to save a local industry from virtual extinction because of uneconomic competition, I consider the effectuation of such a purpose by the statutory regulation of that other local and competitive trade to fall within section 92 (13) of the British North America Act."

His Lordship wrote that the legislation, to his mind, came within the class of property and civil rights, which were exclusively assigned to the province under that section of the B.N.A. Act.

He did not think the price-fixing powers of the Fuel Board Act conflicted with the federal powers in customs duties.

The Dominion's purpose in imposing customs duties "may extend, at large, to the protection of industries from unfair competition from the importation of a foreign product," Mr. Justice Sloan continued. "The provincial purpose may be to assist, within the province, a local industry from unfair competition, not of a foreign product, but of another local product."

TWO FOULS
He cited again the Privy Council judgment upholding the Natural Products Marketing (British Columbia) Act, which empowered a board to fix prices of natural products in the province.

"Natural products imported into the province are subject to the exercise of federal power to impose custom duties thereupon . . . and if the right of the Dominion to impose a duty is destructive of the provincial power to fix for legitimate provincial purposes the local price of another dutiable commodity—gasoline—it follows that the power to regulate natural products by price-fixing within the province lies not with the province, but must be within the Dominion sphere of legislative jurisdiction," he wrote. This result would be wholly at variance with the decision in the marketing board case.

The price cut ordered by the Provincial Fuel Board last October would have reduced the basic price of gasoline in Vancouver from 27 to 24 cents, and in Victoria from 28 to 25 cents. In other parts of the province the reduction was as high as six cents. The government tax of 7 cents a gallon was not affected.

Premier Pattullo said at Victoria recently the provincial government was awaiting today's detailed reasons for the appeal court's judgment before deciding whether to order another price reduction.

BRITISH VIEWS ON REPRISALS DIFFER

Newspapers Divide On Proposal of Economic Pressure On Japan

LONDON (CP)—British newspapers were divided today on the advisability of pressing economic reprisals against Japan in retaliation for the blockade of the Tientsin foreign concessions.

The Financial Times, Independent, said economic reprisals by Britain might become necessary, but the Financial News, Independent, saw enormous difficulties in the way.

The London Daily Express, Independent, said: "Japan obviously hopes for a diplomatic victory to cover her military defeats. For her war in China has so far brought her no profit and no honor."

"The incident raises the whole question of our concessions in China. We should be prepared to give them up. But we should leave China for the Chinese, not the Japanese. We will give the place to the landlord, but not to the burglar."

The London Daily Herald, Labor, censured "weakness of the British government before continued aggression in China."

The Manchester Guardian, Liberal, said:

"The assumption that certain evidence can be found in the proceedings of the Japanese for the beginning of a general struggle against British influence and the British position in the Far East, for an attempt to bring pressure to bear on Great Britain so that this country may not hamper Japan in its war on China, is not shared in all quarters. Several observers take the view that the Japanese government will not refuse the opportunity of a compromise."

PORT ALBERNI—Mrs. Frances Mabel McIntyre, wife of J. A. McIntyre, postmaster of Port Alberni, 68, died in the West Coast Hospital last night as the result of a fall downstairs the previous day at her home. Besides her husband, she leaves one son, Alexander Joseph, Port Alberni; one daughter, Mrs. H. Schmeidler, New York, and one brother, Fred Trussler, Tacoma.

Germans to Man Western Forts

BERLIN — Exchange Telegraph says it is announced from Frankfurt that extensive exercises will take place in western Germany in the near future by troop formations intended to man the western defences. The exercises will last for a considerable period and are intended to acclimatize the troops to living in the fortifications.

Safe Locked, Money Gone

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police scratched their heads today as they attempted to learn not only the identity of the thief who took $9.85 from the Canadian-Pacific railway telegraph office here, but how the money was taken out of a locked safe. W. S. Goldier, operator, told detectives he put the money in the safe last night and locked it. When he came to work today the strongbox was still locked, but the money was gone.

Telford to Demand Chief's Explanation

Vancouver Mayor
Contradicts Foster's Claim
Vice Eliminated

VANCOUVER (CP)—Mayor J. Lyle Telford today said he would demand an explanation at tomorrow's meeting of the police commission of statements by Chief Constable W. W. Foster in his annual report that commercialized vice "has been eliminated" and bootlegging "seriously curtailed."

"I don't believe it," the mayor said. "That's just the sort of thing that gets my goat. My information and belief are exactly to the contrary."

The mayor said he had reports from private informants with names, places and times of operation of local vice dens.

"Everybody knows these things are going on, except the police," he said.

Mayor Telford will also demand at the police commission meeting a renewed drive against vice, gambling and bootlegging. The mayor said two days ago he had been offered a bribe of $1,000 a month to maintain the status quo in Vancouver law enforcement.

"With reference to the report of the morality detail, it is revealed that commercialized vice has been eliminated," said Chief Foster's report, which was released this forenoon. "Prosecutions of white slavers resulted in 20 arrests, 17 convictions and three dismissals."

"Street-walking has been practically eliminated and steps have been taken to control venereal disease among prostitutes," the statement continued. "Wholesale bootlegging was drastically curtailed during the year, possibly due to the large number of seizures made in 1938, numbering 1,938. Consistent investigation is being carried on with the object of completely eliminating wholesale operations. Representations to the provincial government to change existing legislation in order that more effective enforcement may be secured were submitted during the year to the board of police commissioners."

Turning to gambling establishments, the report stated the number of Chinese gambling resorts had been reduced to the smallest total yet known during the 50 years that such houses have operated here.

King Confers Honors

HALIFAX (CP)—King George has conferred on Lord Tweedsmuir the insignia of Knight Grand Cross of the Victorian Order. It was announced today during the stay of His Majesty and Queen Elizabeth in Halifax.

Announcement was made also that A. S. Redfern, secretary to the Governor-General, had been created a Knight Commander of the Victorian Order and Lieut. Col. Eric Mackenzie, comptroller of the Governor-General's household, had been made a commander of the same order.

A new order provides that non-residents in Alaska must live in the territory three years before they are eligible for resident trapping privileges.

Queues in Tientsin As People Searched

British Residents
Stand Long Periods
In Japanese Blockade

TIENTSIN (AP)—A platoon of the Durham Light Infantry, part of Britain's 750-man garrison, was deployed Thursday across Racecourse Road, principal entrance into the blockaded British concession from an area in which many Britons live.

The posting of troops followed reports of residents they were having increasing difficulty entering the concession through the Japanese blockade and were meeting with open hostility on the part of Japanese gendarmes at the barriers.

The Britons requested arrangements to convey them into the concession. British who used Racecourse Road said guards at the barrier there had made several of them strip to the waist for search.

Some said they stood for a long time in line behind the barrier and when they reached the head of the line they were told to return to the end of the quarter-mile long queue and start again. It was reported Chinese-language placards were posted in the Chinese village near the racecourse, instructing natives to have no dealing with the British who were "responsible for the present situation."

Ten Chinese employees of an American concern, William Hunt Company, tried to swim the Hal River to the company's wharf on the British side, but were caught by Japanese and returned to the Japanese side.

TANKS AT BARRIER

TOKIO (AP)—A Domei (Japanese news agency) dispatch from Tientsin said a British detachment armed with light machine guns and a Japanese force equipped with four light tanks faced each other Thursday on Machang (race course) road at Tientsin.

The dispatch said the British machine guns were mounted so they pointed toward the Japanese side of a sandbag barricade started by British troops with the aid of Chinese policemen just within the blockaded British concession.

When construction of the barricade was started the Japanese quickly brought four light tanks into position and the two forces faced each other only a few yards apart. The dispatch said the British detachment numbered 100 men.

Arab and Jew Slain in Palestine

JERUSALEM (AP)—A Jew opened fire on a group of Arabs today on the outskirts of Tel Aviv, killing one and wounding two. Later two bombs were thrown at Arab huts, but without casualties. These outbreaks prompted authorities to order suspension of all traffic to and from Tel Aviv between noon today and 7 tomorrow evening. A Jewish special constable was killed when shots were fired at a truck on the Nazareth-Tiberias road.

Phone Profits 'Unusually High,' Inquiry Finds

Broad Program
Of Regulation Urged
To Safeguard Public

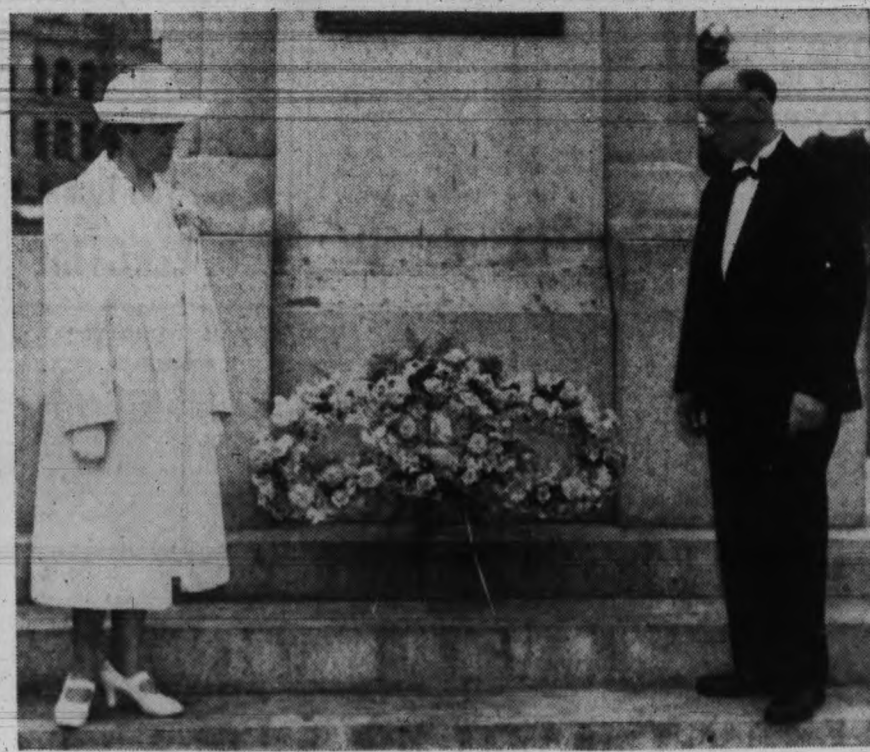

WASHINGTON—Federal Communications Commission today declared itself ready to inaugurate and develop a broad program to regulate the telephone industry in co-operation with the states and asked Congress for amendments to existing laws so as to extend federal jurisdiction over Bell System finances and other matters where authority is lacking.

In its long-awaited report on the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. investigation, the F.C.C. said Congress would be asked for an appropriation to provide highly trained staff experts in legal accounting, engineering, statistical and other related branches of regulatory technique.

While the commission was very critical of many past practices of A.T. and T. and the Bell System, particularly condemning what it termed "improper influence" exerted on legislatures and state regulatory bodies, and Western Electric Co.'s cost-accounting system, it omitted much of the condemnatory language used by Commissioner Paul A. Walker in his recommended report of last year.

Asserting that profits of the Bell System since its inception 60 years ago have been "unusually high" for a system engaged in rendering a public service, the commission said that the former high earnings of the industry may be expected in the future "unless rates are reduced either voluntarily or through action by regulatory authorities."

Declaring that savings to tele-

HONOR WAR DEAD—Fabian Hugh of Cloverdale, B.C., provincial grand master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and Mrs. Martha P. Orr of Chilliwack, B.C., president of the Rebekah Assembly of the I.O.O.F. in B.C., are shown placing a wreath on the Cenotaph yesterday afternoon. The conventions of both organizations will end tonight.

phone subscribers of more than $30,000,000 through reductions in rates resulted from the telephone investigation, the commission said this result justified the Congressional reference that "the people are entitled to know if they are being over-charged for this service even though they may be satisfied with the service."

CONTROL OF SECURITIES

Major recommendations of the commission include:

1. That the F.C.C. be authorized to prescribe basic cost accounting methods for the Western Electric Company, described as the "manufacturer and supplier" for the vast Bell system.
2. That the F.C.C. be given jurisdiction over the issuance or refunding of securities by telephone companies subject to its jurisdiction.
3. That the F.C.C. be authorized to prohibit the abandonment of any interstate line operated by any firm subject to its jurisdiction.
4. That the filing with the F.C.C. of applications for consolidation of telephone companies be mandatory, instead of optional, as at present.
5. That F.C.C. approval be required for all acquisitions by one company of the stock of another company for purposes of control.
6. That the Bell System be required to license its patents to others who can use them beneficially. The present practice, officials said, is for the Bell System to refuse patents to others who are engaged in the same field.

IMPROPER INFLUENCE

Asserting the Bell System "has pursued an active policy of cultivating public good will at considerable expense," the report added: "There is evidence to indicate that improper influence has been brought to bear upon regulatory and legislative bodies charged with the duty of fixing rates for Bell System companies. This practice is clearly against public interest, is condemned and should not be countenanced by any regulatory body."

"The Bell System has subsidized various publications. The propriety of including in operating expenses of any Bell System company, for rate-making purposes, amounts designed to promote good will is a question for the regulatory body which may be faced with this problem in a specific rate proceeding."

MONTREAL (CP)—The liner Empress of Britain, with capacity for more than 1,100 persons, is carrying only 40 passengers, in addition to the ship's personnel and naval escort officials from Halifax to Newfoundland and England on the King's and Queen's voyage home after their tour of Canada and visit to the United States.

Their Majesties, their 13 attendants, 22 staff members, two press representatives and the official photographer make up the passenger list.

Here is the official list as made public here by the Canadian Pacific steamship:

King George and Queen Elizabeth.

In attendance on Their Majesties—Lady Nunnburholme and Lady Katharine Seymour, ladies-in-waiting to the Queen; the Earl of Eldon, lord-in-waiting to the King; the Earl of Airli, Lord Chamberlain to the Queen; Sir Alan Lascelles, acting private secretary to the King.

Surgeon-Captains H. White and Joseph A. Maxwell, medical officers; Capt. Michael Adeane, assistant private secretary to the King; Lieut.-Col. the Hon. P. W. Legh and Commander Conolly Abel-Smith, equerries-in-waiting; Lieut.-Commander Peter Dawson; Chief Constable A. Canning, Metropolitan police officer; G. F. Steward, chief press liaison officer.

Staff—Miss Catherine Maclean, the Queen's first dresser; Miss Christina Wilcox, the Queen's second dresser; Miss Winifred Grocock, maid to Lady Nunnburholme; Mrs. Matilda Raffan, maid to Lady Katharine Seymour.

A Skipworth, steward to the Royal household; Thomas I. Jerram, the King's first valet; James MacDonald, the King's second valet; Frederick J. Smith, the King's page; Reginald Evitts, G. Cole and Charles Oulton, footmen; Robert Smith, the Queen's footman; Maurice Watts, sergeant footman.

Corpl. William Cummins, steward to Surgeon-Captain White; Bernard Ellis, valet to the Earl of Eldon; William Loton, steward to Vice-Admiral Sir Dudley North;

CANADIAN DISHES FOR ROYAL VOYAGE

Deer and Buffalo
Meat for King and
Queen On Trip Home

HALIFAX (CP)—As the King and Queen sailed away from the Dominion this evening, eatables garnered from many parts of Canada bulked on their shipboard menus for the next week. Toothsome cuts of freshly-killed deer came from western Ontario, where the Royal caterers also found steer beef for the King's table.

From the west came buffalo meat, a rare dish that is unfamiliar even to the great majority of Canadians. Their Majesties had sampled it during the western stage of their tour and, judging from its forthcoming reappearance on their menu, apparently liked it.

Quebec contributed one of the King's favorites, too. A substantial consignment of freshly-caught Gaspé salmon, of the season's first run, is in cold storage for the voyage.

Quebec and Ontario joined forces to provide an item familiar to most Canadians, but something of a rarity to Englishmen. Maple syrup, tipped not long ago from trees of both provinces, is in special bottles for the voyage.

Out of the salt water off Nova Scotia came live lobsters, to be popped into a steam pot somewhere at sea and served piping fresh. The Atlantic contributed, too, halibut, brought from the catches of Nova Scotia vessels, and shrimps.

Fresh cream, milk and eggs came from the Nova Scotia dairy belt.

LABOR PEACE TALKS IN U.S. END

Lewis Says Further
Negotiations With
A.F.L. Impossible

WASHINGTON (AP)—United States labor peace negotiations appeared to be at an end today after John L. Lewis, Congress of Industrial Organizations president, declared further dealings with American Federation of Labor representatives were impossible.

Calling the A.F.L. leadership "reactionary" and working to "crystallize anti-New Deal sentiment," Lewis told reporters C.I.O. executives were agreed "they should go forward with renewed vigor."

His sudden pronouncement brought no immediate comment from government officials, who had been watching the negotiations ever since President Roosevelt had urgently requested their inauguration last winter.

It brought a quick response, however, from William Green, president of the A.F.L., who characterized Lewis' remarks as "intemperate."

"The leader of the C.I.O. has again blocked labor peace," Green said.

Lewis' statement followed a long session with the C.I.O. executive board yesterday. The board, he said, accepted without recommendations the report on the C.I.O.-A.F.L. peace negotiations last March and expressed a unanimous view peace was "a secondary consideration" to the C.I.O.'s prime objective of enrolling unorganized workers into industrial unions.

If they are scheduled to fly the following day, pilots on New Zealand Airways are forbidden to drink after 8 p.m.

F. Powell, the Queen's hairdresser; Leading Steward J. Edmonds, servant to Lieut.-Commander Dawnay.

Marine Sidney Allaway, servant to Paymaster-Captain L. A. da C. Ricci; Charles Warren, clerk; Chief Inspector H. Cameron, the King's police officer; Divisional Inspector J. Giles, the Queen's police officer.

Press—G. Gordon Young, British Press representative; R. K. Carnegie, Canadian Press representative; W. G. Horton, official photographer.

Officials of the naval escort aboard the Britain will be Sir Dudley North and Paymaster-Captain Ricci, secretary.

KING GREETED IN NEW GLASGOW

Many Nova Scotians
Also Cheer Royal
Party in Pictou

NEW GLASGOW, N.S. (CP)—King George and Queen Elizabeth paid a brief visit to this little industrial town last night. They spent 10 minutes in a drive along the main streets and then boarded the Royal train for a well-earned night's rest among the rolling hills of central Nova Scotia before proceeding for Halifax.

New Glasgow's avenues were lined by men who work the mines and giant foundries, and fishermen. First aid units stationed along the parade route were made up of the famed orange-mermen—the rescue men who go down the pits when disaster strikes.

At the railway station Prime Minister Mackenzie King presented Mayor N. W. Mason, civic officials and guests, including George W. Sillis, a war veteran, who wore a half dozen medals. The train pulled slowly out of the station while Their Majesties, tired after a long day, during which they traveled mostly through heavy rain, waved from the rear platform.

The King and Queen came to New Glasgow from Pictou, where some hours earlier they had entered Nova Scotia on their return aboard the destroyer Skeena from Prince Edward Island.

In old Scottish Pictou, a population quintupled from its normal 3,000 greeted the Royal guests. During the 10-minute stop a musical reception was given by the bagpipe band of the killed Pictou Highlanders.

MOPING WON'T HELP YOU IF YOU'RE THIN, RUNDOWN, NERVOUS

MANY EASILY GAIN
NEW WEIGHT,
NEW STRENGTH
THIS SCIENTIFIC WAY

YOU may think your case is hopeless—that you're just naturally thin, rundown—often tired and nervous. But as a result of recent scientific discoveries many men and women who never could seem to gain before have put on good pounds of naturally attractive flesh. They've gained normal health, normal nerves, new pep, and all the new friends and good times these bring—by simply taking these scientifically prepared Vitamin B and iron tablets known as Ironized Yeast tablets, for a few short weeks.

Why this builds up so easily. You see, it has now been scientifically proved that numbers of people are thin, wormout and cranky—hardly able to eat, sleep or work—simply because they do not get sufficient Vitamin B and iron from their daily food. Without enough of these two vital substances you may lack appetite and not get the most body-building good out of what you eat.

Now you get these exact missing substances in these easy-to-take little Ironized Yeast tablets. So by simply using their aid for a short time, great numbers of formerly rundown men and women have easily put on just the pounds they needed—gained new pep and much greater attractiveness of appearance—and won new friends and new joy in life.

Make this money-back test

Get Ironized Yeast tablets from your druggist today. If with the first package you don't eat better and FEEL better, with much more strength and pep—if you're not convinced that Ironized Yeast will give you the normally attractive pounds, new energy and life you've longed for, the price of this first package will be promptly refunded by the Ironized Yeast Co.

WARNING! Don't be fooled

But just one warning! Make sure you get the genuine Ironized Yeast, and don't accept anything else. It is the genuine original Ironized Yeast which has brought such striking results for so many others. If you need Vitamin B and iron and want similar results, you want the genuine Ironized Yeast and no other. Look for the letters "IY" stamped on each tablet. No other is genuine.

Au Revoir!

THE EXPERIENCES THROUGH WHICH the North American continent has gone during the last four weeks have left a lasting impression on all the peoples of Canada and the United States. It can be said with equal assurance that the memory of this eventful month will remain green with King George and Queen Elizabeth for as long as they shall live. This unprecedented history-making visit to the New World of the heads of the greatest Empire human kind has ever seen should serve as an object lesson to those in authority in some countries who have chosen to believe that democracy is a tottering cause. When Canada bade adieu to Their Majesties today, therefore, she, in common with the other branch of the English-speaking family, registered an unspoken resolve to rededicate herself to the British system of freedom and all that system connotes.

Our people and several millions of the people of the neighboring republic have had an opportunity of studying in an intimate way the symbolism represented by the constitutional monarchy under which the British system operates among approximately one-quarter of the world's population. It has been easy for them to obtain a clear understanding of its inner meaning, to witness for themselves the responsiveness of its mechanism, for they have come in contact with the occupants of the Throne to which every part of the Britannic Commonwealth owes common allegiance. This contact, to many minds, no doubt, has banished false conceptions of the significance and importance of the Crown to the conglomeration of states of which this Empire is composed. They have seen the King and Queen—Canada's King and Queen—and now know them for what they are: normal human beings, stirred by the same natural impulses, actuated by those concepts of sincerity and friendliness with which they have been wont to associate these two happy Royal parents. Nor would any superlatives which we might command convey more than an infinitesimal idea of the wholesome effect Their Majesties' tour of the Dominion will have on the structure which stands unimpaired in its influence for good in a world so frequently irritated by irresponsible who are trying, albeit with little prospect of success, to substitute totalitarianism for liberty of thought and freedom of action.

Very naturally does Canada rejoice in the success—and that may seem an inadequate term—which attended Their Majesties' all-too-short sojourn in the United States. If there had been a lingering doubt in any quarter as to the nature of the welcome the descendant of another George would receive, it vanished as soon as the Royal travelers set foot on the soil of a land which once was British. From that moment until they again crossed into the Dominion, King George and Queen Elizabeth were accepted by the populace of the republic as one of themselves, just as our own people had accepted them. To our friends, moreover, the presence among them of a British monarch and his consort may have provided an especial revelation of the meaning of the British system and all its constitutional implications. King and President sat side by side, talked intimately to one another—possibly turned back the pages of history in a feeling of pride that the mistakes of the past had produced such a happy present—and thereby endowed an ancient friendly relationship with new meaning. Long will Their Majesties remember the ringing cheers in Washington and New York—the magnificent tributes to their popularity which manifested themselves in various forms in every corner of the country.

Now Canada has said au revoir to her King and Queen. When next we shall see them on this side of the Atlantic we do not know. So many precedents have been established in recent weeks, however, so much fresh history has been written, that every Canadian will cherish the hope that in the not distant future Their Majesties will find it convenient to come this way again. Meanwhile, as they journey across the sea to their homeland, eager to embrace their loved ones, the people of this country and our friends across the border will contemplate with joy and satisfaction a memorable and historic month. So to Their Majesties: Bon Voyage, Good Health, a Long and Prosperous Reign!

Japan Asking For It

JAPAN'S BLOCKADE OF THE BRITISH and French concessions at Tientsin has produced a statement from Prime Minister Chamberlain today to the effect that his government is considering the possibility of seeking joint action by Great Britain, France and the United States as a reply to the new policy of the authorities at Tokio. What form such co-operation may take, of course, will not be known until negotiations have proceeded further.

There are several methods of bringing Nippon to a realization of the risks to which her program exposes her. Economic retaliation could take the form of discriminatory or prohibitive tariffs, exclusion of Japanese ships from British-controlled ports in the Far East, embargoes against all raw materials ordinarily shipped to Japan. Not the least effective reprisal would be the granting of further financial assistance to Chinese Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, to say nothing of an arrangement under which his forces might obtain, from other sources, much-needed supplies of military equipment. In addition to which, moreover, the individual system of boycott, now operative in Victoria and other cities of the Pacific Northwest and in Britain, could be prosecuted with renewed vigor and effectiveness.

In reply to the Japanese spokesman's suggestion that the Tientsin blockade is intended to obtain "a much wider form of co-operation from British authorities in China," Mr. Chamberlain said: "It is clear that if this statement represents the views of the authorities in Tokio, the Japanese are using the incident to make demands wider and more far-reaching than the handing over of four men." (The four men referred to are Chinese whom the Japanese charge with terrorism, the evidence in connection with which the British government proposed a three-power commission should sift before surrendering the accused persons.)

Although, as Mr. Chamberlain says, the situation obviously is a grave one, it is almost unbelievable that Japan is ready—or willing to incur the risk of joint action against her by Great Britain, France and the United States. Perhaps she has produced this "situation" as her best contribution to the axis program, only to throw up her hands later in the face of overwhelming odds. Time will tell.

A Return Visit?

GOSSIPERS AT WASHINGTON ARE wondering whether the President and Mrs. Roosevelt will pay a visit to Great Britain while Mr. Roosevelt is in office. It is an interesting speculation.

Such a trip would not be unprecedented. President Woodrow Wilson went over to the Old World to attend the Peace Conference. Five others have crossed international boundaries while discharging the chief executive's task. President Harding came to British Columbia in 1923 and was guest of honor at a Vancouver luncheon. Mr. Roosevelt came to Victoria in the fall of 1937 and, of course, he has crossed to the north side of the 49th parallel on several occasions, on one of which he delivered his memorable speech which promised that the United States would never stand idly by and see Canada attacked by a common enemy of democracy.

These are days in which some traditions are going by the board, in which precedents are being established almost daily. It would not be surprising, therefore, if President Roosevelt were to decide that to return the visit of King George and Queen Elizabeth would be a pleasant change for him and Mrs. Roosevelt.

It is not necessary to add that the President of the United States will find the warmest of welcomes awaiting him in Great Britain at any time. There is obviously a particularly warm spot in the hearts of all Britons for the present incumbent of that office.

Not Interested—Yet

IT WAS NOT TO BE EXPECTED THAT the two principal points which Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax made in his speech in the House of Lords on Monday would be warmly welcomed in either Berlin or Rome. He said plainly that Britain would meet force with force, that "appeasement" had been definitely abandoned; that, in effect, Britain's might would be utilized to fight for victims of aggression in Europe. But Lord Halifax also implied, just as plainly, that if the dictators would negotiate their troubles instead of resorting to war, Britain would at all times be ready to listen to reason.

The only response so far from the authoritarian states of Europe is a fresh outbreak of anti-British propaganda from Italian and German radio stations. Perhaps this, too, is natural. Neither Reichsfuehrer Hitler nor Signor Mussolini has reached the stage when it could be considered good politics to tell German and Italian peoples that the land-grabbing policy can no longer be pursued, that there are to be no more Munichs, and that, consequently, the only alternative is to try to strike a bargain round the conference table at which democracy will be the dominant influence. When totalitarianism finds itself compelled publicly to admit the existence of this state of affairs it will be a bad day for totalitarianism.

PRICE OF ROYAL VISIT

From Toronto Saturday Night

That the Royal visit has been worth the price Canada has paid will not be denied by anybody. But that is no reason for blinding ourselves to the fact that a price has been paid, and we are not referring to the cost of the decorations or of the Royal train or of the various banquets of which Their Majesties ate so sparingly and their Canadian subjects so well. The price paid by Canada for the Royal visit is the almost complete destruction of the usefulness of an entire session of the Parliament of Canada, a session held at a most critical period, a session which should have dealt wisely and effectively with a number of most serious problems, and a session which has, in effect, been productive of hardly anything except bad temper and squabbles over minor scandals.

We have no objection whatever to Mr. King's accompanying the Royal Party on their tour of Canada, but we do regret he was unable to get the House of Commons down to business during the early weeks of the session, when the government was too busy to produce any of the important legislation which it has had to jam hastily through in the closing hours.

TO THE BENEFACTORS of the race I would like to add the name of my neighbor, Mr. Beak. Mr. Beak is not exactly a scientist who can cure a human disease. He is not an explorer who has rolled back the frontier. But he's death on earwigs.

You may not consider that very important. You may not have earwigs in your dahlias, in your door mat, your clothes closet and your bath tub. You may not face the necessity of turning again to the life of your pioneer ancestors and becoming a trapper, with a bamboo stick or a tin can. You may not have become an executioner who takes several hundred lives every morning in a bucket of boiling water.

But if you know earwigs, you will appreciate Mr. Beak's service to humanity. Now Mr. Beak has tried all the other remedies. He had poisoned earwigs, trapped them, extinguished them with a blow torch and paid a bounty of a cent per hundred to the little boy from next door (who used the old-fashioned method of tramping). But no method was really a success.

Then Mr. Beak got bantam chickens and they cleaned up the earwigs in no time. Other people have done the same, but Mr. Beak's next step marked his true inventive genius. Other people are content to let the bantams clean up their gardens. Mr. Beak, the patriot, the lover of mankind, proposed to clean up the world.

If bantams will eat earwigs, Mr. Beak reasoned, other birds will eat them, too, if they once learn how. So far, of course, our native birds have refused to eat earwigs as they have refused to eat caterpillars, because these things, apparently, are an acquired taste like olives. Bantams having acquired it, Mr. Beak said, other birds can be made to acquire it. But how?

Mr. Beak pondered long, but this week he solved the problem in the true scientific spirit. From a robin's nest in his mountain ash tree fell a baby robin, fluttering feebly, unable to fly. Without thought of personal gain, or even of humanity, Mr. Beak took the tiny robin into his kitchen, put it in a box filled with cotton wool, fed it worms of special succulence, which he dug in his fertilizer pile.

It was then that the great idea struck Mr. Beak. He went out and caught a handful of earwigs. He waited until the baby robin opened its mouth and then he dropped an earwig in. The baby swallowed it eagerly, and asked for more. Within a week, Mr. Beak tells me, he was feeding it almost as many earwigs as worms. It has acquired the taste.

Mr. Beak's program is simple. He has released the baby robin and it has gone out into the world earwig-conscious. It will raise innumerable broods of young robins before it dies. It will teach them to eat earwigs. Within a few years we shall have a breed of wild birds in this country that will be the end of earwigs forever. I am getting up a fund to raise a monument to Mr. Beak. We propose to put up another lighthouse on Pandora Avenue to the memory of Mr. Beak and to the memory of a lost insect species.

BORROWING AGAIN

BY THE PAPERS I see that Mr. Hart has got another loan. He got it some time ago, but I am just beginning to catch up with important news events.

This is nice for Mr. Hart and for the treasury. It is lucky in the first place for the treasury and the public that Mr. Hart is over there in charge of our finances, and if he could stay there forever probably everything would be all right. He may be there a long time yet, but he can't remain forever, and the question which arises out of our new loans is whether we shall have enough sense not to overdo them.

I doubt it. In 1912 we had no debt and, finding ourselves with credit, with the ability to borrow, we went at it with a fine enthusiasm. In 25 years we piled up a debt of about $150,000,000 net and only stopped when nobody would loan us any more. Now the financial world is ready to loan us more, gambling on our ability and willingness to repay. It has always been a fatal temptation before and may be again. If Mr. Hart has restored our credit only to find the public insisting on borrowing up to the limit of it again, he might as well have saved his time and played golf, which he does equally well.

PLEASE, MR. KING

SPEAKING OF POLITICS, if we must, why shouldn't Premier King tell us, the poor peasantry, whether we are going to have an election this year? It is the custom of Canadian governments to withhold this essential announcement until the very last minute, as if they could catch the other fellows unaware. The provincial government tried that in a by-election in Vancouver Centre a few weeks ago, not with notable success. In the federal field the opposition parties already are getting ready, so there is no chance of taking them by surprise.

The American system of fixed election dates is fairer to all and avoids the present period of complete uncertainty and suspense, which is crippling Canada today. Yes, crippling. Several of us who have to be concerned with elections don't know when to take our holidays. Have you no heart, Mr. King?

Those who do most to bring the curse of Fascism are not conservatives but the irresponsible morons who abuse liberty.

A writer's friends should never read his work, for anything he says that is true of all humanity seems a crack at them.

Car Joins Family In 'Home Of Tomorrow'

You'll literally "drive right in" to your home, if this house of the future becomes popular. It's the "Motor Home," in the exhibit of Homes of Tomorrow at the New York World's Fair. The novel feature is a two-car garage which forms the main entrance, seen in front view above. The rear of the house, shown below, is dominated by a circular porch which becomes an outdoor living-room.

Royal Tour Reflections

By ELMORE PHILPOTT

WHENEVER I have to refer to newspapers or magazines of about 10 years ago I am always impressed by the speed with which the world moves. This is true of little things as well as big. During the King's tour of Canada, for instance, I listened every day to the radio reports. I was struck by the increasing place that the song of O Canada has won in our national life. I chuckled when I heard that Their Majesties had more than once personally requested the singing of the Canadian anthem and had accorded it all the honors due to the recognized national song of a nation.

It is just about 10 years since many super-imperialists in Toronto not only refused to recognize O Canada in any way as a national song but even declared that those who stood when it was sung were smacking up the last ties of the British Empire.

As a matter of fact, O Canada is a song of which any people might well be proud. Naturally it has not the same force in the English versions as in the French in which it was written. But it is obvious that the English-speaking people of Canada are gradually learning the same version. It is one of the very few ties that we have which unite in some degree at least all the people of Canada.

I used to be a bit ashamed of the fact that there were so many versions of the English rendering of O Canada. But that condition seems to be correcting itself. While it is true that the overwhelming majority of Canadians simply repeat over and over again "O Canada," we stand on guard for thee," it is also true that most Britishers know little more than one verse of God Save the King. I have made a point of listening carefully when United States audiences sang the Star Spangled Banner. It seems to me that the vast majority of Americans only know about three or four lines of that song.

Like O Canada, at the French Canadian song it. When Their Majesties were at Sudbury the crowd sang first in English and then in French. The difference was striking. I have noticed, too, that in Quebec most bands time the song much faster than we do in the rest of Canada. I do not know of any song which sounds worse than O Canada when dragged out too slowly, unless it be God Save the King played like a funeral march. Why so many band and orchestra leaders choose this funeral timing I do not know. The effect is terrifically depressing.

PERHAPS I am an incurable iconoclast, but what pleased me most about the visit of the King and Queen was the demonstration by Their Majesties that it is possible to dispense with much of the obsolete etiquette of court life and still combine regal dignity with friendliness. To me exaggerated servility is not only in poor taste but positively ludicrous. The attempt to transplant to this continent some of the customs which went out of style in Continental Europe about the time of Louis XVI seems a bit silly.

About 100 years ago when China was being opened to world intercourse, chiefly by the insistence of the British and American traders, it was compulsory even for the ambassadors of foreign countries to approach the Chinese Emperor by grovelling across the floor of the royal chamber on all fours. The envoys of the English-speaking countries refused point blank to comply. The royal retinue in Peking was outraged. It was one of the petty little incidents which led to what is mis-called the Opium Wars.

In the vast majority of cases all the arguments about correct procedure must seem a bit silly to visitors, even Royal visitors like the King and Queen. It is unlikely that Their Majesties ever expected Canadian public men and their ladies to scrape, bow and backstep like the courtiers at some tawdry Balkan court. Probably what they did expect was that such Canadians would act as natural well-bred Canadians—conscious of the dignity requisite to their positions.

ECONOMIZE ON SCHOOLS

From New York News
What they chiefly deplore is the fact that when lawmaking bodies such as the state legislature finally get around to talking economy they usually economize first on the school system. We think that in a democracy lawmakers should economize last on the school system.

Clubwomen's News

Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.D.E., met on Tuesday evening at headquarters, the regent, Mrs. F. E. Dowdall, presiding. Treasurer's and secretary's reports were read, and all accounts ordered paid. A donation of $15 was voted to the educational fund, also a donation to the Joan of Arc Company Girl Guides, the chapter's adopted company. Preliminary arrangements for a fashion show at the Hudson's Bay Company early in September were made. Mrs. O. M. Jones has kindly lent her garden for a 21st birthday party on Saturday, September 9.

An enjoyable silver tea was held in the gardens of Commander and Mrs. H. R. Tingley, Grafton St. Esquimalt, on Tuesday afternoon, under the auspices of St. Paul's W.A. The guests were welcomed by Mrs. H. Silburn, the president, and Mrs. A. Bischoff. The president presented Mrs. Tingley with a beautiful glockin, and thanked her for her kindness and hospitality. Tea was served by Mrs. A. Lockley, Mrs. J. Kennedy, and Mrs. E. Mitchell. The next meeting of St. Paul's Naval and Garrison Church W.A. will be held on Tuesday, June 27.

Esquimalt Women's Institute met Tuesday evening in St. Paul's Parish Hall, Mrs. E. Pocock presiding. A silver tea was arranged for July 13 in the Parish Hall, Mrs. E. Pocock, general convener. There will be home cooking, sewing, afternoon tea and teacup reading; and military 500 will be played in the evening. A donation of $5 was voted to the T.V. Association. If suitable arrangements can be made, members will visit the Victoria Mattress Factory on Tuesday, June 27. A picnic will be held in the Japanese Tea Gardens at the Gorge, July 7, to which all members and their friends will be welcome. One new member was accepted. The two small dolls, won by Mrs. J. Gibson, were kindly redonated by her to the Solarium. Two card games had been held during the month and there will be the usual 500 on Thursday evening at 8.15 in the Parish Hall.

Local Girl Graduates
TORONTO (CP)—Phyllis Reeve of Vancouver was awarded the prize for general proficiency in the intermediate year at the graduation exercises last night of the Toronto Hospital for Sick Children. Other graduates include Isla Jean Tuck of Victoria.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

After spending several months at the Empress Hotel, Mrs. Herbert Wilson of Perth, Ontario, has left for the east.

Last evening, at their home on Dufferin Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bulley entertained at a small dinner for Mr. Maurice D'Olely.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Rennie of Chesley, Ontario, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Pearce, Beechwood Avenue, have left for California, en route home.

Dr. Dora Smith of San Francisco, who has been visiting her father, Dr. A. H. Tanner, Cadboro Bay, has left for California. Her brother, Dr. Lorne Tanner, who accompanied her here, will leave on Saturday for the south.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Parker and the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lewis were christened on Sunday, June 11, at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields Church by Rev. Canon H. W. G. Stocken. The babies, who are cousins, received the names Donald Frederic and Betty Rosalie, the godparents being Messrs. A. Webster and C. Lewis and Miss B. Ward; Misses J. Lewis and T. Parker, who stood proxy for Mr. B. Bastin, and Mr. E. Cliff. A tea was held later at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lewis, Parkview Drive.

Miss Lorna Turpel, who is to be married this month, was the guest of honor when members of the Venture Club, of which she is the popular president, gathered at the home of Mrs. C. R. Powell, Savoy Mansions, on Tuesday evening. Miss Turpel received a corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas and roses, and Mrs. Powell, on behalf of the members, presented her with a walnut coffee table. Games were played and a buffet supper was served from a lace-covered tea wagon, centred with a bowl of African marigold and nepeta. Mrs. Powell was assisted in serving by Miss Ruth Whiteoak. The guests were Messrs. Hazel McKenzie, Janet Graham, Irma Falk, Gwen Spencer, Louise Rogers, Gertrude and Violet Day, Florence Murkar, Kay Davies, Emily and Gertrude Durkin, Ellen Varney and Ruth Whiteoak.

Junior members of the Navy League Chapter, I.O.D.E., held a bridge party last evening at the home of the regent, Mrs. Aubrey Kent, Douglas Street, when the hostesses were Miss Geraldine Kent, Mrs. Gerald Ritchie and Miss Dorothy McKicking. Eight tables were in play. A buffet supper was served in the dining-room, the table being centred with a single rose in a bowl, surrounded by curved pottery containers of mixed flowers in pastel shades, and the whole illuminated by rose-pink tapers in silver candelabra. The players were Mrs. E. O. Weston, Mrs. Kent, Mrs. E. A. Sandall, Mrs. D. Fair, Mrs. G. E. Woodward, Mrs. Walter McKicking, Mrs. T. A. Johnston, Miss Margaret Stewart, Miss Audrey Sturrock, Miss Ruth McTavish, Miss Molly Lawrence, Miss K. Burnett, Mrs. A. H. Kerr, Mrs. L. Gorman, Mrs. R. Webb, Mrs. S. T. Sehl, Miss S. Craig, Mrs. D. K. Kennedy, Miss F. Parke, Mrs. F. H. Ware, Mrs. J. T. Jones, Mrs. R. T. Murphy, Mrs. T. R. Myers, Mrs. H. A. Allan, Mrs. Gordon Smith, Mrs. H. W. Hall, Mrs. W. E. Cool and Mrs. A. Warren Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Prior, 2551 Dalhousie Street, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Lillian Katharine, to Mr. Thomas L. Thomson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Thomson of Saltair, V.I. The bride-elect is a graduate of St. Paul's Hospital, class of '35, and is affiliated with the 1936 public health nursing class, U.B.C. The wedding will take place quietly on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. F. O. St. John entertained on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon at the tea hour at her home on Douglas Street. Tuesday's function was given in compliment to Mrs. Lee-Wright, who has come to Victoria to make her home, while yesterday's affair was in honor of Mrs. Lee-Wright's daughters, the Misses Phil and Valerie Lee-Wright. Mrs. W. E. Scott-Moncrieff, Mrs. H. T. Hughes, Mrs. Barclay, Mrs. A. F. Slater, Mrs. J. W. Church, Mrs. T. S. Gore, Miss Freda Small, Mrs. McDougall (England), Mrs. A. Woodcroft and Mrs. Mortimer Lamb were present on Tuesday, and yesterday's guests included the Misses Phil and Valerie Lee-Wright, Miss Laura Magrath, Mrs. Ronald Scott-Moncrieff, Mrs. J. D. Prentice, Mrs. F. J. D. Pemberton and Mrs. J. R. Kingham.

'Oakhill' Is Scene of Successful Fete

About 150 guests attended the successful fete held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Snape, "Oakhill," Tattersall Drive, yesterday afternoon. The affair was under the auspices of the Saanich Conservative Association, Mrs. Hazel Woodward being general convener. Percy Mickleburgh, president of the Association, introduced Capt. Macgregor Macintosh, provincial organizer for the Conservative party, who formally opened the affair.

Capt. Macintosh spoke optimistically of the interest being shown in the Conservative cause throughout the province, particularly among the young people, and in the newer and smaller settlements which he had visited on his recent tour. F. S. Cunliffe, candidate for the Nanaimo federal riding, also spoke briefly, and bouquets were presented to Mrs. Macintosh and Mrs. Cunliffe.

Tea was served on the lawn by Mrs. John Watson, Mrs. F. Holmes and a bevy of young helpers. An orchestra comprising Messdames F. W. L. Moore, O. L. Jull, Eilers, Besant and Tuson, Miss Tuson, Miss Farley and H. George, dispensed music, and dances by Miss Betty Clair's pupils included a polka, by Norma Corckle, Diane Colton, Muriel Richmond and Doreen Buckingham; tarantella, Gwen Evans; gavotte, Iris de Meers, Dorothea Rowland, Vivian Nottley and Valerie Turnbull, doll dance, Jean Pringle, Lou Pringle, Bessie Thomas, Diane Colton, Norma Corckle, Jose Shaw and Doreen Buckingham, accompanied by Jerry Schofield. Other diversions were house-herald in charge of Neville Chamberlain, wheel of fortune, John Watson; treasure hunt, George Little; teacup reading, Mrs. Clara Birkett; home cooking, Mrs. J. Huddleston, assisted by Mrs. McGregor; Miss A. M. Deane, miscellaneous table. M. Butters had charge of the gate.

T.V.A. HOLDS MEETING HERE

Discussion on matters that will be brought up at the forthcoming B.C. convention of the Canadian Legion engaged the attention of the Tuberculous Veterans' Branch No. 18 of the Canadian Legion at a meeting held Tuesday night in clubrooms, 612 Blanshard Street. The convention will be held in Kamloops the first week of August.

Outline of the work accomplished by the branch since its inception 17 years ago was given by the chairman. He also stressed the amendments that had been made to the Canadian Pensions Act as a result of carefully studied and reasonable recommendations submitted to conventions by the local unit and the T.V.A. as a whole.

The efficient manner in which arrangements were made for ex-servicemen during the Royal Visit was lauded by the members. A committee was struck to act in conjunction with the Ladies' Auxiliary in making arrangements for the T.V.A. annual picnic. It was decided to donate several prizes to the bazaar which the auxiliary will convene at some future date.

J. F. Harrison, B.C. provincial representative of T.V.A. branches and member of the Provincial Command of the Canadian Legion, was present at the meeting, and complimented the Branch on the fine condition of its clubrooms and the manner in which meetings were conducted.

No More Park Shows

A recommendation will go from the city parks committee to the City Council suggesting future applications for use of open parks for shows be declined. The committee decided to take that action yesterday following discussion of criticism over the carnival shows staged at Central Park at the beginning of the month.

The committee will also recommend reconstruction of the cricket pavilion at Beacon Hill and will prohibit hardball games on the small park at Nanaimo and Oswego Streets, reserving the area for the use of smaller children and softball teams, the latter after 7 in the evening. The action was requested by the Parent-Teacher Association of James Bay. Seats and a swing will also be placed in the small park.

Delegates from the local Canadian rugby club also met the parks committee yesterday with a request for the use of the Athletic Park on four Saturdays this fall. The committee suggested the representatives contact the soccer interests here to make arrangements that would be mutually satisfactory.

Victoria City Kennel Club Parlor show, Drumadon, June 17, 2.30.

Boxla Outlaws Back in Game

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

ONE SPOT we would most like to be Saturday would be a front row seat at Palmer Stadium when Sydney Wooderson, midge London bank clerk, hooks up with the cream of United States distance runners in the Princeton Mile. On arrival at New York this week Wooderson, who has run an outdoor mile faster than any other man in the world, stated he thought a 4.03 mile was possible. We will guarantee that if any of the field cover the distance in that astonishing time the finish will not be close. There will only be one in the field. The remainder of the field will be run into the ground.

Although he tips the scales at a mere 125 pounds Wooderson is recognized as one of the greatest milers in history. The Briton has planned his program so as to be at the height of his form Saturday, for he is determined to go all out and emulate Jack Lovelock's achievement in winning the first event of this kind at Princeton in 1935.

Wooderson's stiffest competition is expected to come from Archie San Romani, who beat Lovelock the following year, and Glen Cunningham, holder of the world indoor mile for the mile. There will be other runners in the race, but these three are expected to provide the winner. However, if a record is to be established some one will have to get out and set a gruelling early pace. In that way the field will be stepped up, otherwise the pace in the early stages will be so slow that no matter how fast a finish there will be no record broken. It will be interesting to see just who takes on the job of pacesetter.

While dealing with the subject of track performers we were interested in the recent announcement that Jesse Owens, who won three events for the United States in the 1936 Olympic Games at Berlin, has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy at Cleveland listing his assets as $2,050 and his liabilities at $8,891. Owens has "sprinted" from job to job since he turned professional after the Olympics. Here are some of his jobs: Speechmaker for the Republican party on behalf of Alfred Landon, presidential candidate in 1936; exhibition runner against horses; leader of a dance band; leader of a touring basketball team; stage performer; city playground director; official in Cleveland's parks department and salesman for a New York distilling corporation.

Owens' latest venture was the Jesse Owens' Dry Cleaning Shop, which he opened in Cleveland last August. It closed down some months ago. Owens is just another amateur athlete star who has found it impossible to make his glory reap benefits in terms of dollars and cents. When he was carrying the United States to the top of the heap in the track world he was a hero and everybody was his friend. But when it came to making his popularity pay off it was a horse of another color.

Years have passed, not so many, since Herb Pennock was serving them up in the American Baseball League. For 22 years Pennock pitched in the majors and proved himself one of the greatest left-handers in the history of the game. He was a member of eight pennant-winning clubs. Recently Pennock was asked to draw up 10 commandments for pitchers.

1. Develop your faculty of observation.
2. Conserve your energy.
3. Make contacts with players, especially catchers and infielders, and listen to what they have to say.
4. Work everlastingly for control.
5. When you are on the field, always have a baseball in your hand and don't slouch around. Run for a ball.
6. Keep studying the hitters for their weak and strong points. Keep talking with your catchers.
7. Watch your physical condition and your mode of living.
8. Always pitch to the liver.

Suspensions Lifted Today On 18 Leading Players Of Mainland League

VANCOUVER (CP)—A dozen and a half star box lacrosse players of the 1938 season were released today from a 37-day suspension imposed on them by the British Columbia and Canadian Amateur Lacrosse Associations for playing in a professional league in California last winter.

The players have been on the sidelines since the opening of the 1939 schedule of the Inter-city Box Lacrosse League last May 8 and at least six of them will come down "off the shelf" to play tonight.

The Canadian association at first imposed a two-year suspension on the players but at a later meeting decided to reinstate the men June 15.

The two new Westminster, B.C., teams, Adanacs, last year's western Canadian champions, and Salmonbellies, 1937 titlists, were hardest hit by the ruling that followed the winter exodus to the south, but will have an opportunity to show the value of their "outlaws" when they clash in a league fixture at the Royal City tonight.

The return of the players—six to Salmonbellies and five to Adanacs—stamps the affair as the "big game" of the season, since both will be at full strength for the first time this year.

The two squads are now tied for second place, four points below Vancouver Burrards.

STOP BURRARDS
The big question facing both teams is—will the return of the "outlaws" bolster the teams enough to stop the rampaging Burrards, who have been setting the pace since the beginning of the season, having chalked up seven straight wins.

Adanacs are relying on five players, Gordon Saunders, "Punk" Kennedy, Lloyd and Lorne Steele and Garrie Carter, to revive the flashy passing attack that took them to the Mann Cup finals last year.

Salmonbellies, on the other hand, with the return of Pete Anthony, last year's leading goal tender, Alfie and Mousie Davey, Bill Tyler, Jack Hughes and Bert Bryant, plus their 1939 string of newcomers, hope to clinch the title.

Coach Grumpy Spring of Salmonbellies and Jimmy Gifford of Adanacs would not state the names of players who would strip tonight's tilt, but it was rumored that the majority of "outlaws" would be on hand.

Ed Gilmore's hopes of winning the title with his Richmond Farmers will be bolstered by the return of four players, Art Noble, Jackie James and Jack Walmsley, former playing coach of the Nelson Maple Leafs, and Herb Delmonico, substitute goalie last year.

Gilmore intends to bring the boys out Friday when his team stacks up against North Shore Indians.

Not to be outdone, Indians, who have dropped eight consecutive games already this season without a win, will strengthen their lineup with three well-known sharpshooters.

"Buckshot" Thomas and "Shine" George, two eastern Canadian imports, arrived today and will strip tomorrow night with Chubby Smith, a local redskin.

Although Thomas and George will not be eligible to play in the Mann Cup finals, due to non-residence in British Columbia before May 1, the British Columbia Lacrosse Association has granted them permission to play at least in the Inter-city League.

A ruling of the Canadian Association says that any player wishing to play must be a resident here on or before May 1.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Freddie Haas of New Orleans, former Canadian amateur golf champion, won medalist honors of the southern golf championship for the second time yesterday in a sub-par exhibition. He finished the qualifying distance with 141 a shot under par.

Outdoor Canine Show Saturday

Victoria City Kennel Club Looks for Record Entry; Fine Prizes

Officials of the Victoria City Kennel Club in charge of the annual outdoor show to be held at Drumadon, Cadboro Bay Road, on Saturday, are arranging to handle a record entry.

Practically every kennel in and around Greater Victoria will have an entry, which will include English and cocker spaniels, English, Gordon and Irish setters, wire, smooth, Scottish, Cairn, West Highland, Airdale and Australian terriers, Pekingese, Pomeranians, poodles, German shepherds, Doberman pinschers, boxers, great danes, collies, English bulldogs, Boston, dachshunds, Kerry blue terriers, whippets and salukis.

Sixteen special prizes will be awarded, and the Quandalla Challenge Trophy will be up for competition and is open to nonmembers of any kennel club only. In addition to the above a special prize will be awarded to the best girl and one for the best boy handler.

A. W. Forbes of Tacoma will judge all breeds, and judging is scheduled to commence soon after the entries close at 2.30. They will be taken at the gate, starting at 2. The 2 and 2.20 street cars and buses will be met at the Uplands car terminus and patrons of the show conveyed to the grounds. Tea will be served indoors during the afternoon.

Football Game Tomorrow Night

Spencers and Hudson's Bay, midweek league soccer eleven, will clash in the final of the Adam Cup series tomorrow evening at Beacon Hill Park. W. J. Cull will referee. Kickoff is set for 6.30.

Spencer's team will be comprised of Stewardson, D. Gent, Cann, Richards, Bradley, K. Gent, McMillan, McBride, Collins, Re-side, Clarke, Thomas, Byatt and Lund.

The annual banquet of the Wednesday Football League will be held Thursday, June 29, in Spencer's dining-room. The banquet was originally set for June 22, but as the dining-room was not available for that day officials decided to hold it a week later.

Soccer Players Fight

CALGARY (CP)—Temper flared last night when Calles and Hillhurst played to a 1 to 1 deadlock in the first of their three-game series for the right to represent Calgary in the Alberta playoffs of the Dominion Football Association. Most of the players on both teams engaged in a brief free-for-all after the final whistle.

Scots Victors 6 to 1 Storemen Win Soccer Title

Touring Footballers Give Smart Exhibition Against Manitoba All-stars

WINNIPEG (CP)—Displaying a scintillating brand of soccer, the touring Scottish internationals trounced a Manitoba all-star select team last night 6 to 1. In 11 games of their United States and Canada tour the Scots have won 10 and drawn one, playing a 1 to 1 tie with a New York team.

Manitoba was no match for the class Scots, whose team play and footwork thrilled a crowd of 4,000. Jimmy Caskie, who plays his football with Everton in the English League, brought rounds of applause from the spectators with his tricky dribbling and passing.

Sandy McNab, left halfback, opened the scoring after 12 minutes of play of the first half with a blazing low shot to the corner from outside the penalty area. Seven minutes later George Hamilton, inside right, boomed a shot to make it 2 to 0 for Scots. Bobby Hampton, Winnipeg centre, missed a glorious opportunity three minutes later when he shot wide with only Jerry Dawson, Scot custodian, to beat.

THREE FAST GOALS

Caskie went down the left wing and tricked two Winnipeg defenders and laid a perfect pass for Tom McIntyre to bang into the net at the 29-minute mark. Harry Tyler, Winnipeg centre half, pulled Caskie down inside the penalty area at the 42-minute mark and from the spot kick Jackie Jones made no mistake. One minute later the elusive Caskie dribbled past four defenders and whistled a shot past the upright, making it 5 to 0.

Play was slow in the second half with the Scots content to lay back and wait for breaks. Hamilton added another counter to his total at the 15-minute mark of the second half with a low drive. The only Manitoba goal came after a scramble in front of the Scots' goal. Eddie Hodgert, with only Dawson to beat, hit the crossbar, and the ball bounded out to Beckwith, who in return passed back to Hodgert, the latter placing a nice shot into the corner.

Teams follow:
Scotland—Jerry Dawson, Doug Gray, Jimmy Carabine, Bobby Boff, Willie Lyon, Sandy McNab, Tom McIntyre, George Hamilton, Jack Jones, Doug McAvoy and Jimmy Caskie.

Winnipeg—Eddie Gelfend, Sam Lennon, George Ness, Ike Hind, Harry Tyler, Andy Bruce, George Pickup, E. Hodgert, Bobby Hampton, Bruce Gardiner and Harry Beckwith.

Corfield, Bladen In Tennis Upset

City Champions Lose Doubles Fixture in Victoria Lawn Tourney

W. E. "Reg" Corfield, whose greatest pleasure would lie in finding a new crop of tennis stars to take over from the old guard and bring the city to a higher standard in the game, saw an indication of future satisfaction today.

With R. Bladen, who teamed with him to win the city championship doubles last year, Corfield went down to defeat before H. S. Flett and W. H. Dunbar in a three set marathon match in the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club championship play yesterday afternoon. Flett and Dunbar took the opening set 8-6, dropped the second 6-8 and then came back in the third to win 9-7.

In the women's singles, Mrs. J. C. I. Edwards marched towards a repetition of her triumph last year with a victory over Miss Helen Cornwall, losing only one game in the match.

MEN'S OPEN SINGLES

A. C. Brand defeated H. S. Ford, 6-1, 6-3.
R. A. Phillips defeated H. R. Garrett, 6-3, 6-2.

Rainers In Second Win Over Angels

Continue Great Drive in Coast League Baseball With 7 to 2 Victory

Seattle's stubborn Rainiers, who have been pestered Los Angeles Angels for first place in the Coast League since the baseball season started — and twice caught up with them — were only half a game behind the league winners today.

At Seattle last night the Rainiers scored their second straight win over the Angels, 7 to 2. As Paul Gregory outpitched the league's leading hurler, Julio Bonetti, Gregory gave up eight hits in marking up his 12th victory against three defeats, while the Rainiers nicked Bonetti for 14 hits.

A crowd of 13,000 saw the home club take a one-run lead in the second inning and tally again to tie the count after the Angels had pushed across two in the fourth. From then on it was all Seattle as the Rainiers scored twice in each of the sixth and eighth on four-hit bursts, and once in the seventh.

Hollywood again traded places with San Diego in fifth place, beating the Padres at Hollywood 1 to 0, as Bill Fleming pitched a two-hit shutout. Fleming pitched for Vancouver Maple Leafs in the Western International League two years ago. Hollywood got only three hits off Wally Herbert, but one was a triple by Joe Hoover that was converted into a run in the eighth.

San Francisco's third place Seals, dropped a 7 to 6 decision to the last-place Beavers at Portland.

At Oakland, the fourth-place Oaks evened their series with seventh-place Sacramento with a 6 to 5 win.

There are not enough pitchers in the American League to keep New York Yankees from another baseball championship, perhaps, but their rivals' freshly formed policy of riving their aces from the top of the deck promises some unforeseen interference.

Young Bobby Feller muffled the Bronx bombers on four hits for eight innings yesterday to enable Cleveland Indians to triumph 4 to 2.

This was a welcome answer to the plea of Detroit's manager Del Baker that other clubs follow his example of aiming their biggest guns at the Yankees. He fired Dizzy Trout, Tommy Bridges and Buck Newsum at the New York ers on successive days last week and won two out of three games.

Feller engaged Monte Pearson in a pitching duel which in the end was not decided by either, although Feller got credit for his 10th victory against two defeats.

The youngster gave only two hits until the eighth inning when a walk, two singles and an error gave the Yankees two unearned runs. The only run Pearson admitted the Indians in eight innings was forced in on three passes after a single. Then both were removed for pinch-hitters and the Tribe teed off to Johnny Murphy for three tallies, and the ball game in the ninth—with Ben Chapman driving in the winning runs on a double.

Meanwhile the Tigers extended to seven straight victories the string they started with the noble experiment against the Yanks. They belted Boston Red Sox 9 to 8 and 6 to 2 in a double defeat which dropped the Sox within a game of Cleveland.

Washington Senators' moved past Philadelphia Athletics into sixth place on the four-hit shutout pitching of knuckleballer Dutch Leonard, who strapped Chicago White Sox 3 to 0.

The A's were trounced 6 to 0 at night by St. Louis Browns, who have been in the American League cellar long enough to know their way around in darkness. Vernon Kennedy provided a heady three-hit pitching performance camouflaged by his teammates' four home runs at Stanbury 81.

Qualicum Bay Popular With Everyone

Just three miles north of famous Qualicum Beach the shoreline curves inward to a quiet stretch of sand named Qualicum Bay. Not nearly so well known as the famous beach, still this bay is finding its way into the hearts of many holiday-seekers, for it has a quiet beauty in its surroundings and a warm friendliness in its atmosphere that appeals to young and old alike.

Qualicum Bay as a summer community is well within reach of all the attractions that are important to vacation seekers. There is a good stretch of fine sandy beach that is perfectly safe for children. There is warm sea bathing and good fishing—in the sea, in Qualicum River near by and in Horne Lake, just a mile or so away. There is a wonderful view out toward the setting sun, with tiny islets in the foreground and a glimpse of snow-capped peaks away off on the mainland shore. There are trails back into the woods where tiny streams tumble and dance under the ferns. There are many private homes and tiny cottages and there is a delightful little resort hotel, and two modern and up-to-date auto camps.

A CHARMING INN

Casa Del Mar, with its gabled roofs, bright window boxes and rose-covered doorway has all the attractiveness of an English countryside inn. As a charming summer resort, it is dignified and friendly in its atmosphere and modern—and up-to-the-minute in its appointments. The lounge, furnished with comfortable cushioned chairs, chesters and reading tables, has a well lived-in quality; the dining-room is airy and attractive and the food deliciously cooked and daintily served. The bedrooms are clean and the beds comfortable. Out in the garden is a riot of bright summer flowers. There is a tennis and badminton court behind the inn and a lovely woodland garden with a bit of trickling stream and a grove of huge old cedar trees. Casa Del Mar has a private beach and a lovely grassy parkland along its shore. There are several pretty little summer cottages that may be rented by the week or month.
Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Scott have the faculty of making everyone feel instantly at home and they have made many friends in the years they have been at this charming inn.

town folks alike. That is why the scenic high on the lovely Malahat Drive is always so popular and why many automobiles stop for minutes at a time while their occupants feast their eyes on one of the loveliest views on Vancouver Island. It looks down over the Saanich Inlet and on to that checkerboard of cultivated farms and darker green woodlands that is the Saanich peninsula. On clear days the view widens to include the tiny islands of the Gulf of Georgia, beyond the peninsula the white shingling cone of Mount Baker high in the background. It is a picture breathtaking in beauty... a picture never to be forgotten.
The Scenic View Lodge at the sign of the big Red Indian, is another reason why motorists stop at this particular spot. Here is a pleasant, airy tearoom, finished in natural light pine, with rustic tables and chairs and pretty pottery dishes. There are great windows that look out and down over the beautiful view. A green pottery vase filled with branches of pine and cedar adds a tangy perfume to the attractive room.

There is a rustic fireplace, too,
and Indian basketwork hanging on the walls.
Light lunches and afternoon
teas are served at the Scenic View. Delicious salads, dainty slices of bread and butter, homemade cakes, shortbreads and cookies, and good English tea or American coffee to top it off. In the heat of a summer day the Scenic View Lodge is a cool oasis in which to spend a restful half hour.

Don't miss this scenic view on the Malahat or the Scenic View Lodge. Both are only an hour's run from Victoria. Both are well worth discovering and rediscovering over and over again.

Seed Growers Hear Lectures

Well-known Agriculturists
Read Papers to Large
Meeting at Empress Hotel

Lectures on agricultural subjects, of wide and valued interest to members of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association, were given by well-known men of Canada and the United States at the annual meeting continued today at the Empress Hotel.

More than 100 members from all parts of Canada, as far east as Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia and as far north as the Peace River country, this morning in the Empress Hotel ballroom, listened attentively to the speakers and took copious notes for use when they return to their seed farms.

H. R. Murray, assistant professor of horticulture at Quebec's famous Macdonald College, opened today's heavy program, speaking on "Mode of pollination as a factor in the management of vegetable seed crops." This was followed by a general discussion, led by A. N. L. Butler of Ottawa, crops specialist of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association.

WISCONSIN SPEAKER

An international touch was lent to the morning gathering when G. H. Riemann, associate professor of genetics, horticulture and plant pathology at University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis., spoke on "The importance of disease-resistant varieties in a program of vegetable seed production." Motion pictures were used to illustrate this lecture, which was followed by a general discussion, started by T. F. Ritchie, chief assistant in charge of vegetable crops at the Central Experimental Farm in Ottawa.

"Some phases of seed administration" was the subject chosen for the lecture delivered by Nelson Young of Ottawa, assistant director, plant products division of the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

AFTERNOON PROGRAM

Following an informal luncheon, immediately after which a group photograph was taken, the members returned to the ballroom to hear a number of speakers, among them Clive Plante of the Agricultural Marketing Bureau of Vancouver, H. G. L. Strange of the crop testing plant, Winnipeg; F. L. Dickinson of the United Grain Growers of Winnipeg; H. P. Wright, president of the Alberta Seed Growers' Association, Aldridge, Alberta. A paper prepared by S. H. Vigor, field crops commissioner for Saskatchewan, who was unable to attend, was read to the meeting.

Cecil Tice, representative of the B.C. Department of Agriculture, on the directorate of the association, in his report told of the formation during the last year of a B.C. Seed Growers' Association. Active interest had already been shown, he said.

"In addition to this," Mr. Tice's report said, "a field crop seed committee was appointed by the Hon. K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture, for the purpose of examining the situation in respect to stock seed of cereals and to consider the advisability of zoning the province for varietal crop and seed production. As a result of this an arrangement has been made with the University of British Columbia to produce stock seed of certain definite varieties."

These will be immediately studied by the Attorney-General's department, it was indicated, and the government's legal position clarified. The cabinet will then consider the drafting of a new price order.

As far as could be learned at the buildings today there is nothing to prevent the government passing a price-cutting order despite the intimation from oil companies that they will appeal the ruling of the Appeal Court.

The only way in which the oil companies could stop such an order being enforced is if the Supreme Court of Canada should grant an injunction against it, according to government legal experts. Any action of this sort would await passage of a new price-schedule-and-steps to carry it into effect.

EXTRA HOURS FOR RESORT HOTELS

Special working hours for women employees in resort hotels in unorganized areas of the province were announced in an order today by Adam Bell, chairman of the Board of Industrial Relations.

They are to cover hotels and restaurants during the tourist season in areas where it is not easy to get extra help for rush hours.

The order allows for a 10 hour day instead of 8 hours and for a 54 hour week instead of 48, but specifies that employees must be paid time and a half for anything above 48 hours in a week. The special rules are effective until September 15.

King Appreciated Bell-ringing Here

The King's appreciation of the ringing of Christ Church Cathedral bells during the Royal visit to Victoria is voiced in a letter written on behalf of His Majesty to Dean Spencer H. Elliott by Captain Michael E. Adeane, assistant secretary to the King.

In the course of the letter, Capt. Adeane wrote: "Their Majesties had been informed before they left London that you had a very fine peal of bells in the Cathedral and were particularly struck by the beauty of the bell-ringing while they were in Victoria. Will you please let the ringers know

PRESS SEARCH FOR FALSE ALARM FIEND

Ten Bogus Calls
Answered By Firemen
Last Night

Officials of the fire and police departments today renewed their efforts to find trace of the person who has been responsible for a series of false alarms recently, following 10 bogus calls to headquarters last night.

The calls were received from various parts of the city and all were received within less than an hour, from 10.17 to 11.07.

The first few calls were received from the business district of the city and later ones came from the vicinity of the Jubilee and St. Joseph's hospitals, indicating the offender was traveling around in a car.

In the midst of the calls a home-fide alarm was received to the Shawinigan Mill yard, where a shed owned by the Marine Iron Works was on fire. Little damage was done by the fire, but while attending the blaze Harry Anderson, a member of the department, suffered an injured hand when a hose coupling caught in one of the trucks. He was given medical treatment for the injury.

TOWN TOPICS

When he pleaded guilty in the City Police Court this morning to a charge of stealing a barber's pole owned by T. Kawatta, Gordon Chambers was fined $25.

The Methosin School District has sent a complimentary letter on the courtesies extended representatives from that area by the city of Victoria during the Royal Visit.

An illustrated lecture by O. Corbett of Technocracy Inc. entitled "Technology and its effect upon North America" will be given at 222 Pemberton Bldg. tonight at 8.

Judgment of Magistrate Henry C. Hall, dismissing charges laid against H. H. Livesay under the Chiropractic Act, was reversed by Judge H. H. Shandley in County Court yesterday.

Bank clearings in the city for the week ending today were $1,699,493, according to a statement issued by the Victoria Clearing House. Clearings for the same week last year were $1,711,066.

Thomas Taylor and Dal Le Marquand, two young men convicted on charges of vagrancy, were each sentenced to 30 days imprisonment by Magistrate Hall in the City Police Court this morning.

Thanks of Captain H. R. G. Kinahan, in command of H.M.S. Orion, for the courtesies extended to the ship's company by the city, and particularly for the gift of a carved ivory totem pole presented to him, were contained in letters received today by Alderman W. H. Davies, celebrations committee chairman.

A blown fuse in the Johnson Street Bridge caused a minor motor traffic tie-up and delayed a tug for which the bridge was being raised yesterday afternoon. The machinery ceased to function when the span was raised a few feet. Repairs were completed in half an hour.

The annual presentation of diplomas to those members of St. Mary's Sunday school who have obtained 95 per cent of the possible number of marks during the past year will take place on Friday evening in St. Mary's Hall, Yale Street, commencing at 7.30. All members of the school are requested to be at the hall not later than 7.20. The Reeve of Oak Bay and Mrs. Taylor have kindly consented to attend and present the diplomas to the young people. Following the presentations there will be a varied program of entertainment by the boys and girls. Admission will be free.

VETERANS URGED TO AID BOYCOTT

Support was given the objectives of the Embargo Council of the Canadian Friends of the Chinese People at a general meeting of the Pro Patria Branch of the Canadian Legion, Tuesday night. It was decided to urge members to boycott goods produced by aggressor nations as much as possible.

The meeting endorsed all actions of the provincial command on the matter of the refusal of the Minister of Pensions to implement the economic allowance recommendation of the Veterans' Assistance Commission, by introducing legislation at the recent session of parliament.

A pamphlet issued by the British Ministry of Pensions, entitled "Notes on War Pensions," was discussed. It was found that the pamphlet contained a great deal of information that would be useful to ex-Imperials. The meeting ordered that it be made available for use of Imperials.

W. C. Fyfe, C. A. Gill, A. E. Hull and J. G. Corry Wood were appointed by the meeting to attend the provincial convention of the Canadian Legion to be held in Kamloops, August 3 to 5.

The branch picnic will be held at Willows Beach July 22. Arrangements are being made by the executive committee. A committee was struck to revise the branch by-laws. Revisions will be submitted at the next meeting.

Seven new members were welcomed into the branch.

FOREST LOSSES IN B.C. DOWN

Forest fire losses were held to a minimum in the province last week with only 19 blazes reported, according to a forest branch summary today.

Cool and rainy weather helped the foresters keep outbreaks in check and at the end of the week the branch was able to report not a single fire burning.

For the year to date there have been 373 fires compared with 478 at this time last year and 351 in 1937.

Grand Master; McCabe,
Victoria, Treasurer

At this morning's session of the 65th annual convention of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, J. B. Dennis, Chilliwack, was elected Grand Master succeeding Fabian Hugh of Victoria. Mr. Dennis held the office of Deputy Grand Master last year.

Other elections followed: Deputy Grand Master, J. M. White, North Vancouver; Grand Secretary, E. L. Webber, Vancouver (re-elected); Grand Warden, Charles Twinn, Vancouver; Grand Treasurer, Alex McCabe, Victoria; Grand Representative, Fabian Hugh, immediate past Grand Master.

Revelstoke was chosen as the next place of meeting over New Westminster. The rest of the morning was taken up with routine business matters.

Following business sessions this afternoon the general portion of the conference will close with the installation of officers at 5. This evening in the Empress Hotel, a banquet will be held at 7 to be followed by the grand ball at 9. Alex McCabe, Victoria, will be toastmaster at the banquet.

NATIVE SON GOES TO EGYPT

Pilot-Officer Vernon C. Woodward, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Woodward, Fairfield Road, and grandson of Mrs. A. J. Woodward and the late A. J. Woodward of "Clovell," North Quadra, well-known pioneer florists here, who left for England to join the Royal Air Force in April, 1938, received training at several stations in England and Scotland. He received his wings last Christmas and after further training, he volunteered for active service. After being granted a month's leave he sailed from England May 20 to join No. 33 Fighter Squadron stationed at Ismailia, Egypt.

NEW YORK (AP) — Eleanor Holm, former Olympic swim star, yesterday disclosed that her long-awaited divorce from her ex-husband, Art Jarrett, radio singer, has been granted.

Miss Holm said that next September 19 she will become Mrs. Billy Rose, wife of the diminutive Broadway showman in whose aquacade at the New York World's Fair she is featured.

The closing meeting of St. Mathias' W.A. will be held on Wednesday, June 21, as a service of thanksgiving in the church at 3 p.m., taken by the Rev. Alan Gardner. Tea will be served afterwards in the hall.

OBITUARY

THOMSON — John Gauld Thomson died Tuesday at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, aged 58 years. Born in Aberdeen, Scotland, Mr. Thomson moved to this city 22 years ago from Prince Albert, Sask. He was a veteran of the Great War and served overseas with the 53rd Battalion. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 from the S. J. Curry and Son Chapel. Interment will take place in Colwood Burial Park.

WILLIAMS — The funeral of Mary Frank Williams took place this morning from the Sands Mortuary Ltd. at 8.45 o'clock, and at 9 o'clock mass was celebrated by Rev. Father A. B. Wood in Admiral's Road Church. The pallbearers were: C. Wither, J. Wood, F. Marrs and C. Chambers. The remains were laid to rest in Esquimalt Cemetery.

MONTGOMERY — John Russell Montgomery died yesterday at the family residence, 28 Marlborough Street, in his 55th year. He was born in Blantyre, Lanarkshire, Scotland, and had been a resident of Victoria for nine years. He leaves his widow, at the family residence; one brother and three sisters in New York, and one brother-in-law in England. Funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at the Thomson Funeral Home at 2, Rev. A. E. Whitehouse officiating. Interment will be in Colwood Burial Park. No flowers by request.

MOWAT — The funeral of Mrs. Pearl Hayman Mowat, who died at her home, 2083 Byron Street, yesterday morning, will be held tomorrow afternoon from McCall Brothers' Funeral Home at 3.30. Rev. L. A. Wilcox will conduct the service, after which interment will be in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

BRADSHAW — Rev. F. Pike conducted services at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel this morning for Mrs. Sarah P. Bradshaw. The pallbearers were R. D. Travis, P. F. Howden, L. C. Lytton, A. Lee, D. J. Butler and A. McCoubrey. The remains were cremated at Royal Oak crematorium, and will be laid to rest tomorrow in St. Luke's Cemetery.

BIRD — Mrs. Mary Ann Bird, aged 75 years, a native of Northumberland, England, and a resident of Victoria for 10 years, died yesterday. She is survived by two sons, R. A. Bird of Calgary, and E. S. Bird, Banff, Alberta, and one daughter, Mrs. J. M. Brooks, Ardmore, Sidney V.I. The funeral will take place from the Thomson Funeral Home tomorrow afternoon at 2.30. Rev. F. Pike will conduct the service. Interment will be in the family plot in Royal Oak Burial Park.

HORNBY — Richard Hornsby died early today at the family residence, 1320 Johnson Street, aged 84 years. He was born in England and had been a resident of this city for 28 years. He leaves his widow, two sons, Alfred of 1320 Johnson Street, and Henry in England; and four daughters, Mrs. Ada Green, 112 Olive Street; Mrs. G. Exton of 3253 Doncaster Drive, and Mrs. L. Holmes in Scotland and Mrs. J. Brazier in England, and 28 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon from McCall Brothers' Funeral Home at 2. Rev. A. E. Hendy officiating. Interment will be in Colwood Burial Park.

ASHTON — Yesterday afternoon, funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. R. Lancaster for William Ashton, Chief of Police J. A. McLean and Inspector J. T. Bolton, with officers and members of the various police departments, formed a guard of honor at the chapel, and an escort and guard of honor at the cemetery. Also attending the funeral were officers and members of Court Northern Light, A.O.F., as well as representatives of numerous other organizations. Interment was made in the family plot at Colwood Burial Park, under the direction of S. J. Curry and Son, with the following acting as pallbearers: A. G. Strawford, C. W. Brooks, T. Gilthorpe, P. F. Rawnsley, and Edward Rodgers.

MOSCOW RECEIVES
British Proposals

MOSCOW (AP) — The British and French ambassadors were believed to have delivered new proposals today for a British-French-Soviet Russian mutual assistance agreement in a conference with Premier Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov.

They had conferred previously with William Strang, special British envoy, who brought the new proposals.

Will Appoint Acting Mayor

Alderman R. A. C. Dewar
Expected to Fill
Post While Mayor Away

The City Council will meet in special session tomorrow afternoon at 4.30 to appoint an acting mayor, it was learned at the City Hall today.

Following the appointment, which is expected to place senior Alderman R. A. C. Dewar in the temporary post, the meeting will adjourn. Another session will probably be called for Monday to cover routine matters.

Selection of an acting mayor was declared necessary at the City Hall to expedite certain conveyances now held up through the absence of Mayor Andrew McGavin from the city. None of the aldermen may sign such deeds which cannot be completed without the signature of the mayor or the acting mayor.

Choice of an alderman for the position rests entirely with the council, but under usual procedure, the senior alderman would be honored. Alderman Dewar holds the position of seniority among the council members.

The meeting was called after the aldermen had signed a notice calling for the session.

While routine business will probably be conducted on Monday, no matters of major importance are expected to be undertaken until the return of Mayor McGavin, at present in San Francisco.

Jolson Croons in Dominion Picture

The story of a girl who went on loving "her man" even after he had hurt her and tricked her is thrillingly told in the heart songs and hit songs of the past in "Rose of Washington Square."

which comes to the Dominion tomorrow. Tyrone Power and Alice Faye, the romantic stars of "Alexander's Ragtime Band," are starred in this 20th Century-Fox hit with Al Jolson, who sings again the songs he made great. "May Man," "April Showers," "Ja-Da," "Mammy," "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows," "I'm Just Wild About Harry," "Avalon" and "Rose of Washington Square," the James F. Hanley-Ballard MacDonald number, which gives the film its title, are among the many hits heard, plus a brand new Mack Gordon and Harry Revel number, "I Never Knew Heaven Could Speak."

Merle Oberon in Bronte Love Story

With Merle Oberon and Laurence Olivier heading a cast of prominent players, one of Samuel Goldwyn's most important and most outstanding productions to date, "Wuthering Heights," will open at the Plaza Theatre on Monday. "Wuthering Heights" is based on the great love story of the Emily Bronte novel of the same name.

Merle Oberon, in portraying the role of Cathy, a highly emotional high-spirited beauty, turns in one of the most unforgettable performances the screen has offered in many a moon. Laurence Olivier, as the brooding, fearsome half-gypsy, fulfills a role of great difficulty with consummate insight and power.

CAPITOL THEATRE

With Don Ameche, in the title role, sharing top honors with Loretta Young and Henry Fonda, Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "The Story of Alexander Graham Bell," now at the Capitol brings another immortal character to the motion picture gallery of the great. Irving Cummings directed the 20th Century-Fox, for which Lamar Trotti wrote the screen play.

'Pygmalion' Held Over at Atlas

Bernard Shaw's Famous Farce Wins Acclaim As Film Production

"Pygmalion," film adaptation of Bernard Shaw's famous rib-tickling stage farce, is being held over at the Atlas Theatre.

Leslie Howard is starred in the role of the phonetics professor who on a bet transforms a London guttersnipe into a duchess with hilarious consequences both for himself and the girl. The part of the flower-seller who is made into a lady almost against her will is played by Wendy Hiller.

Hunter Miller On Boundary Disputes

Distinguished U.S. Historian Speaks To Seed Growers' Luncheon

The historical background of the great Oregon country, now British Columbia, Washington and Oregon, and the treaties and delays and threatened wars that led to the present boundary line between Canada and the United States was traced yesterday for members of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association at luncheon in Empress Hotel grillroom, by Dr. Hunter Miller, historical adviser to the United States Department of State.

"At the time of the Oregon country boundary question, no one had the slightest dream of present-day actualities," Dr. Miller said. "So I say now the future possibilities and actualities of this glorious northwest country are as much beyond our imaginations as present-day actualities were without the ken of the statesmen of 1846."

KISS YOUR TIRED-FEELING GOODBYE!

Peoples Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.
The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did—even look healthy and strong, yet you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, dizzy, tired and peevish.
Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you going power.
Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today. They are world-famous for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up, you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today.

Spain had original claims for the Oregon country, Dr. Miller said. Many famous names were connected with the British claims, he said. Sir Francis Drake was near this region in 1579. In 1778 Capt. Cook arrived, followed by Vancouver. In addition, there were daring land explorations by Sir Alexander Mackenzie, Simon Fraser and David Thompson.

Two United States merchant ships, he said, witnessed the seizure of British ships by the Spaniards off Nootka, and Robert Grey in the vessel Washington discovered the mouth of the Columbia River before Vancouver came to this coast. In 1811 John Jacob Astor arrived.

The Russian claims were based on the discoveries in Alaska of Bering, a Dane, in Russian service, and the Spanish claims on Papal bulls of 1493.

The United States acquired the Spanish claims and the Russian claims were relinquished in 1824. Then, after long delay, because there were few people in this territory and the governments of Great Britain and the United States had more important matters on hand, the boundary was eventually settled along the 49th parallel to the middle of the Gulf, between the mainland and Vancouver Island, and from that point to the ocean.

J. B. Munro, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, presided at the luncheon and introduced and thanked Dr. Miller for his address.

The Victoria Chamber of Commerce will co-operate in arrangements to entertain 2,000 United States bankers and their wives who are expected to make a short visit to Victoria in September. The trip is planned as a feature of the convention of the American Bankers' Association, to be held in Seattle this year. The proposal was discussed with local bank managers by a delegation of Seattle bankers who came to Victoria over the week-end.

Impressions of Visit Are Told

Ald. Archie Willis Recounts Experiences On Royal Pilot Train to Gyro Club

"The personalities of the King and Queen have over-shadowed any political significance of the Royal Visit in Canada and any political events in which they took part in the minds of most of the people," Alderman Archie Willis told members of the Gyro Club and their wives at a dinner in Terry's last night.

His opinion was voiced during a talk on some interesting sidelights he observed during the trip as the representative of the Victoria Times on the pilot train which preceded the Royal Train across Canada.

Their personalities were truly exhibited in the many human gestures across the country when they went out of their way to speak to the common people who would not otherwise have met them.

The trip had many delightful sidelights and he met many interesting people in addition to the King and Queen, Mr. Willis said.

In order that he would not repeat many of the descriptions which had already appeared in print, Mr. Willis said he would answer questions from club members and their wives on matters on which they desired information.

Asked what the duties of the ladies-in-waiting were, Mr. Willis said they were in constant attendance to the Queen on all occasions. They could curtsy better than anyone he had ever seen. Another question inquired how the Queen wore her hair. He described it as deceptive, not bobbed and not long.

Neither the King nor Queen wore glasses as far as he knew, he told another questioner, although he did not see them at any time when they were reading.

He described the King as a "real man" and an excellent rider. Pictures of the Queen did not do her justice, he thought, or displayed her true ability at wearing clothes.

On the night of the Royal arrival in Quebec, the Queen wore $500,000 worth of jewelry, he said. Her clothes were also magnificent on the occasion when the King gave assent to Parliament's bills. This occasion was one of the most spectacular events of the trip, Mr. Willis thought.

There was no noticeable application of cosmetics in the Queen's complexion, he told another inquirer. She relied almost solely on her "natural Scottish make-up" for her complexion and used only the slightest trace of face powder.

The Queen did not smoke, as far as he knew, while the King enjoyed the occasional pipe and cigarette.

"I think the King and Queen are two lovers possessing a devotion that is not often seen between a man and a woman. They are deeply in love with one another and their children," he said.

Drug Stores Sell Little But Drugs

Sidelines Take Up Space But Bring Little Money, Convention Hears

Soda fountains, sporting goods departments, photographic supplies, cigarettes, candy, novelties, stationery and alarm clocks take up a lot of space in the average drug store—but they put surprisingly little money into the till, members of the British Columbia Pharmaceutical Association were told at the closing business session of their annual meeting in the Dominion Hotel last night.

Figures worked out from a questionnaire sent to a representative cross-section of the province's druggists and presented to the meeting showed that the non-drug sidelines, which often take up more than half the room in the store, make up only 29 per cent of the total sales.

Most members found the percentage considerably lower than they had expected.

After thus taking note of the extent of the drug stores' entry into other fields of business, the meeting turned indirectly to the question of other businesses' entry into the drug field.

A suggestion of the Greater Victoria Retail Druggists' Association that the B.C. Pharmaceutical Association consider appointing an organizer-inspector to supplement the work of the registrar was endorsed in principle and turned over to the council for the working out of details.

WOULD ENFORCE ACT
In the event of the appointment of such an officer one of his duties would be to see to the enforcement of the Pharmacy Act not only in the case of the druggists themselves but also in that of other storekeepers and individuals.

Enforcement of the act would chiefly concern the sale of prophylactics, which is governed in British Columbia by the most advanced legislation in Canada.

The move would not affect the sale of patent medicines, which the Pharmacy Act does not limit to drug stores.

The meeting heard a progress report from a committee recently established to iron out the occasional differences between druggists and doctors. A committee on health insurance reported it was taking no action pending some move by the provincial government.

Milton Corbett of Creemore, Ont., chairman of the council of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association, told the meeting the Dominion body was of real service to all druggists in Canada, as much in the west as in the east.

It was of particular value, he said, in being able to speak to the Dominion Government as the representative of the various provincial associations and the profession as a whole.

The meeting went on record as approving an amendment to the apprenticeship regulations to permit apprentices to sit for their examinations at any time in the last six months of their four-year term instead of only at the end of it.

At their afternoon session the members had endorsed in principle and referred to their council for action a proposal for a compulsory course for would-be pharmacists at a university-attached college of pharmacy.

Such colleges exist in all Canadian provinces except British Columbia. During the last year the governors of the University of British Columbia have prevailed on the university's senate to approve the principle of establishing such a college. Its formation is only being delayed by lack of accommodation.

At present students in British Columbia spend on the average three-and-a-half years serving in drug stores and six months in independent schools of pharmacy, while in other provinces they have to put in as much as two or three years in a university college.

There was a division of opinion on whether the compulsory course should be required immediately or should await the establishment of a college.

The association's curriculum committee reported on proposed detail changes, which were referred to the council for study.

The registrar's report showed 539 registered pharmaceutical chemists in British Columbia, 13 more than last year, but a drop of 24 in the number of registered apprentices, due to the raising of their entrance standard from junior to senior matriculation.

Reginald Hayward, former M.P.P., urged the building of a stronger naval defence force in Canada and the registration of aliens when he spoke to a social gathering of Victoria Conservative Association at headquarters in the Campbell Building last night.

He said the registration of aliens was overdue. It would facilitate dealing with foreign elements in case of trouble.

Mr. Hayward said the Royal Tour of Canada was a lesson to the world in Empire unity.

He urged Conservatives to get their candidates, both provincial and federal, in the field at an early date.

HONOR CITY AT ROSE FESTIVAL

Victoria Representatives To Portland Report Warm Reception

The city of Victoria holds a warm spot in the hearts of Portlanders, Alderman B. J. Gadsden, one of Victoria's civic representatives at the Portland rose festival last week, reported today.

With Alderman Ed. Williams and their wives they formed the official delegation to the Oregon city's celebrations. They were joined there by Alderman John A. Worthington.

Given a position near the head of the procession the two civic representatives drove in Alderman Gadsden's car, decorated with rhododendrons, Union Jacks and banners bearing the emblem, "Victoria, B.C." The parade, including 40 bands and 72 big floats, extended about three miles.

The Victorians were honored in the Multnomah Stadium with knighthood in the Order of the educational pictures and a musical program by the following artists: Mrs. B. Noel, Mrs. I. Salmon, A. W. Trevett and Joseph Dobbie.

Rose, joining other Victorians who have been granted that distinction in former years. Edward Everett Horton, comedian, and Hon. W. J. Asselstine, Minister of Mines for British Columbia, were among the company of 10 who received the accolade.

On behalf of Victoria, Mrs. Ed. Williams presented a bouquet of roses to the festival queen. Among other functions, the two aldermen attended the dinner and ball given in conjunction with the rose festival.

Heavy Travel to B.C. Indicated

All signs point to a tremendously heavy travel to British Columbia this summer, according to word received from Lloyd Craig, B.C. commissioner at the San Francisco fair.

In the 116 days since the fair opened more than 500,000 people have visited the British Columbia exhibit and of these 107,000 have registered. Literature describing the holiday spots of the province has been sent to the homes of every one. In addition the officials at the exhibit have personally talked to hundreds of intending visitors, says Mr. Craig.

WOMAN AGED WITH SCIATICA

Now Praises Kruschen
When sciatica attacked this woman six years ago, she couldn't move without great pain. Treatment after treatment failed to help her. She tried Kruschen and got quick relief.

"Six years ago, I suffered terribly from sciatica," she writes. "I tried everything, but to no avail. Then I took Kruschen Salts. The first few doses gave quick relief. At the end of a few weeks my sciatica had gone. Now I always begin the day with a pinch of Kruschen in a glass of water. I live a strenuous life, being widowed four years ago, and having a son to keep. I run a boarding house, rise at 6 a.m., and retire at 11 p.m. I am 52, but everyone says I look 32—thanks to 'Kruschen Salts.' — (Mrs.) F.E.R.

The severe pain which is characteristic of sciatica is often due to needlepointed uric acid crystals in the sheath of the great sciatic nerve. Two of the ingredient salts in Kruschen dissolve uric acid crystals. Other salts in Kruschen help Nature to expel these dissolved crystals through the natural channels.

FAMILIES MOVED AT HEDLEY, B.C.

Steps Taken To Prevent Recurrence Of January Disaster

Steps to prevent a recurrence of the disastrous landslide at the mining town of Hedley, where huge boulders bouncing down off the mountain side smashed homes and killed two people in January, are progressing well, according to mines and land department officials.

Several families have moved their homes from a "danger zone" marked off by officials, although others who have lived there for years are taking the chance that no more rocks will come down.

The school, directly in the path of boulders from an overhanging bluff, has been closed by official order. Pupils are receiving instruction in other buildings.

The government, through the lands department, has offered to exchange lots in safer territory for those occupied in the danger zone.

According to officials here boulders weighing as much as 200 tons plunged down the mountain in the January slide and others have fallen since without doing any damage. Examination of overhanging rocks high on the cliffs indicate there is a probability of further falls. All families within the danger zone have been warned that no responsibility can be accepted for their safety.

A motorist who pleaded guilty to a charge of driving dangerously was fined $30 by Magistrate Hall in the City Police Court yesterday morning.

Royal Oak Bay Boy Scouts Association will hold their annual garden party in H. W. Bassett's grounds on the West Saanich Road at the corner of Wilkinson Road on Saturday.

The Richardson mine in Bedford township, Ontario, is the largest feldspar mine in Canada.
